Allies, Reds Agree To End Prisoner Trade by Sunday

'GREAT LUSTRE AND DISTINCTION.' Death has ended the brilliant career of Gen. Jonathan M. (Skinny) Wainwright, the hero of Bataan and Corregidor. He died of a blood clot at Brooke Army Hospital in San Antonio, Tex. This picture, taken on Aug. 31, 1945, shows Wainwright, then a lieutenant general, being embraced by Gen Douglas MacArthur in Yokohama, Japan, in their first meeting since they had parted in defeat on Corregidor three years before. Learning of Wainwright's death, Gen. McArthur said his career was one of "great lustre and distinction."

West Adopts Strong Stand On Germany

'Put Up or Shut Up' Invitation Is Issued To Russia for Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The West confronted Russia today with a "put up or shut up" challenge to attend a Big Four foreign ministers' conference on the long-deadlocked German and Austrian problems.

A joint U. S.-British-French note to this effect not only appeared to put Moscow on a diplomatic spot but simultaneously handed West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer powerful campaign ammunition for Sunday's election test.

May Hail West's Move

Adenauer, long regarded as staunchly pro-Western, was expected during the last three days of the pre-election battle to hail the Western move as proof this policy will insure German unification and backing for his insistence on free elections throughout Germany as the first big step.

U. S. diplomats frankly asserted the latest note to Moscow would automatically give Adenauer a last-minute helping hand. But they insisted it was a sincere Western effort to settle the critical German and Austrian issues.

The three-power notes, delivered to the Russian Foreign Office yesterday, called on Russia's Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov to discuss Germany and Austria's future at a formal meeting in Lugano, Switzerland, starting Oct. 15.

Cut Out Propaganda

In diplomatic language, the Western Powers told Moscow to stop making propaganda statements about the need for German and Austrian peace settlements and undertake sincere negotiation instead.

The U. S. government is convinced that progress is more likely to be made by discussion of these problems than by a further exchange of notes, said the American note.

The United States, Britain and France stood firm on elections before unification, rejecting Russia's proposal that a "provisional government" be set up by merging the Communist - dominated East German regime and the West German government and that elections be held afterwards.

Not Qualified

"An all - German government which is not based on the will of the people as expressed in free elections would not be qualified to take vital decisions affecting the future of the united Germany," said the West..

In polite language, the Western missions also turned down Moscow's attempt to expand the Big Four meeting into a Big Five session which would include Communist China.

Red China's participation in talks on Germany and Austria "could not be justified," said the notes.

Continued Partition Scandal, Dulles Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles today denounced continued partition of Germany as "a scandal" and "a crime." He said Russia was solely to blame for this.

In a statement, Dulles called on Russia to attend a Big Four foreign ministers meeting, as proposed by the west, Oct. 15 to discuss the deadlocked German and Austrian problems.

HAD REASON TO COLLAPSE

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP)—A man who collapsed from heat prostration yesterday as the temperature flirted with the 100-degree mark was found to be wearing five suit coats, a vest, a heavy work shirt, trousers and woolen underwear.

Cooler Air Due

Heat Wave Shows Signs of Easing Up

By The Associated Press

Hot, sticky weather held its vise like grip over most of the eastern half of the nation today but the summer season's record-breaking 10-day heat wave appeared cracking.

The northern fringes of the Midwest got the first welcome relief from the prolonged siege of hot weather that has caused more than 100 deaths and dealt damaging blows to crops.

The cooler air from Canada that moved into the Dakotas fanned out eastward and southward. It headed into Nebraska and Minnesota. If it is not sidetracked, it was expected to extend into Wisconsin and Iowa during the day and into Michigan and central and northern Illinois tonight.

But there probably will be no cooling in the eastern areas until the weekend. And Weather Bureau officials said it was too early to say if the cool air mass would get as far as the heatstricken Atlantic Coast by that time.

The cool air mass is not moving fast, as indicated by the forecast for Midwest areas today. Chicago, wilted after two straight days of 101 and readings of 95 or higher since Aug 25, was in the path of the expected cool air.

Slight Drop Seen

However, before it arrives, temperatures in the Midwest metropolis today were expected to reach 98. The forecast for tomorrow was for "near 80" after a low of 62 tonight which, in view of the blistering heat, was regarded as a predicted cool snap.

In contrast to the eastern hot belt, the Rocky Mountain region had the chilliest weather of the season with snow and near freezing temperatures.

Cold air extended across Montana, Wyoming and Colorado. Snow measuring 2 to 4 inches fell in Beartooth Pass, near Cooke City, Mont., and also in the Gallatin Mountains near Bozeman, Mont. The northeast entrance to Yellowstone National Park was closed by snow, sleet and ice. Rain fell in other parts of Montana, Wyoming and Colorado and temperatures tumbled as much as 40 degrees in some areas. It was 32—freezing—at Fraser, Colo., where President Eisenhower ended a week's outing yesterday.

Showers were expected to accompany the cooler air. Readings were 2 to 32 degrees lower yesterday in parts of Montana. It was 53 yesterday in Helena compared

Mercury at 98 For 2nd Time, Break Forecast

Thermometers recorded a high of 98 in Marion yesterday, the ninth day of the heat wave during which 90-degree temperatures have prevailed in many parts of the United States.

The high temperature which occurred between noon and 1 p.m., equalled the previous season high of 98, recorded on June 20.

Low mercury reading last night was 64. A year ago, the high was 67 and the low 46. By noon today, the mercury had reached 95.

Scattered thundershowers have been predicted for late this afternoon or tonight, and Friday is to be mostly cloudy and cooler with a chance of showers in the morning.

UNCOMFORTABLE COOLING PLACE. Mary Frances Pressley, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Pressley, yelled for "somebody to get me out of this horse trough" at Louisville, Ky. It was 103 degrees on the thermometer but she didn't relish being dunked by her mother and a photographer.

Believe Dean Will Be Last To Be Freed

Captured U.S. General Reported Being Held In Villa Near Kaesong

PANMUNJOM (AP)—The Communists and the United Nations Command today agreed to complete the prisoner exchange by Sunday.

The Communists at a meeting of the repatriation commission said if for some reason they were unable to meet the Sunday deadline they would notify the U. N. Command before noon Saturday.

This means the early exchange of Maj. Gen. William Dean, the highest ranking Allied captive in Red hands. He now is at nearby Kaesong and it is believed he will be the last prisoner exchanged.

The U. N. Command representative told the Communists he thought both sides should conclude the exchange the same day. The command previously had announced it could wind up its exchange by Sunday.

The Communists then agreed to finish by Sunday, barring unforeseen difficulties. The Reds after the three-hour meeting turned over a roster of Communist prisoners they said still were in Allied stockades and demanded they be turned over before Sunday.

Presumably, these are some of the tougher Red prisoners, Chinese as well as North Koreans, some of whom led bloody prisoner riots on Koje Island. The Reds have accused the Allies of holding back these prisoners.

The Communists have still to repatriate 210 prisoners, including 197 Americans, out of the 4,597 non - Korean prisoners promised. They also still have 458 South Korean prisoners. However, the Reds have said more prisoners than promised would be turned over, including those captured late in the war.

The Allies have still to return nearly 7,000 North Koreans and an undisclosed number of Chinese Communists. The Communists have charged the Allies were holding back 250 Chinese.

The first U. S. Sabre jet pilot shot down over North Korea returned to freedom with the 89 Americans exchanged Thursday and said Russian pilots were flying MIG jets in combat as early as December 1950.

Russian Pilots Used

Capt. Lawrence V. Bach of Grand Forks, N. D., reported he was questioned by a Russian flier who said openly that fellow Russians were leading flights of MIGs against American Sabre jets.

Bach, who was shot down Dec. 22, 1950, said he was taken across the Yalu River into Manchuria for questioning by Russian officers after several Russians had questioned him in North Korea.

Communist news correspondent Wilfred Burchett of the French newspaper L'Humanite said Gen. Dean has been held the past three weeks in a special villa near Kaesong awaiting repatriation.

Burchett indicated Dean will be repatriated within a few days but gave no hint as to the exact date. He said Dean is in good health.

Shows Dean's Pictures

Red China's Peiping radio also reported Dean was in Kaesong and said he gained 60 pounds in captivity. Pictures of Dean brought to Panmunjom by Burchett Thursday showed him tanned but thin.

No American prisoner thus far exchanged has caught even a glimpse of Dean, former commander of the U. S. 24th Division, who was captured near Taejon early in the war.

The Communists returned 89 Americans Thursday, plus 5 Canadians, 6 Britons and 200 South Koreans.

The Reds have promised to turn over 300 more prisoners Friday—

Death at Last Claims Hero Of Corregidor

Gen. Wainwright Never Recovered From Jap Brutality

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—The nation mourned one of its greatest, perhaps the greatest of all, World War II heroes today as plans went ahead for the funeral of Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright.

The gaunt, 70 - year - old Wainwright died in Brooke Army Hospital here yesterday at 12:27 p. m. Doctors said rough treatment he received as a prisoner of the Japanese contributed to his death.

Nation Pays Tribute

Today, civilian and soldier, private and general paid tribute to "Skinny" Wainwright, the dogged general whose stubborn defense of Corregidor fortress upset the Japanese war timetable in the Pacific while a stunned United States fathered its force for a long conflict.

In Washington, Gen Matthew B. Ridgway, Army chief of staff, said "The nation has lost one of its great soldiers." He described Wainwright as "a man who exemplified throughout more than 40 years of active military duty the best traditions of the service."

Lauded by Kyes

Roger M. Kyes, acting secretary of defense, said he knew of "no man who sacrificed himself more in the interest and welfare of his command. His exemplary conduct in the face of insurmountable odds made him unique in that small group of great field-commanders."

Gen. George C. Marshall, former Army chief of staff and defense secretary, said he regarded Wainwright, in particular, and his men in the Philippines as "typifying the sacrifice resulting from the indifference of our people to the military necessities of the time."

Iberia Resident Killed, Brother Hurt by Shock

Daniel B. Lohr, 46, Dies When TV Aerial Touches Electric Wire

An Iberia resident, Daniel B. Lohr, 46, employe of the Marion Engineer Depot, is dead and his brother, Alfred E. Lohr, 45, of near Bucyrus is in Bucyrus City Hospital as result of a television antenna coming in contact with a high tension electric wire Wednesday night.

The Iberia man was pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital. Shock and possible brain injury were suffered by the brother, but he was not burned. His condition is listed as "fair" today.

The accident happened about 8 o'clock at the home of Alfred Lohr when the two men, with assistance of Lonie Lohr, son of Daniel, were erecting the television aerial. From the ground, the brothers were assisting with raising of the antenna which was being pulled by a rope to the roof by the 15-year-old boy. He was uninjured. The three were the only ones there at the time. The boy put the men in a car, leaving immediately for the hospital. Location of the Alfred Lohr home is two miles east of Bucyrus on the Kiess Rd.

Born April 9, 1907, in Wyandot County, Daniel Lohr was a son of George and Lucy Brown Lohr. Oct. 25, 1929, he married Rebecca Barrett. A resident of Iberia a year, he had lived previously in Shelby and Bucyrus. He was a laborer at the Marion Engineer Depot.

Surviving are his widow, and his father, who lives in Iberia, his son Lonie, and other children, Mrs. John Wilhelm of Lemert and Neil, Mary Ann, and Allen Lohr, all at home, and brothers and sisters, Frank and Gilbert, both of Galion, Albert, who is in the Bucyrus Hospital, Charles of Tiro, Russell of California, Ralph of Holmes-Liberty, Mrs. Calvin Kreichbaum of Crestline, and Mrs. Charles Gingery of Bucyrus.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday at 2 p.m. in the Munz Funeral Home in Bucyrus. Burial will be at Iberia. Friends may call at the funeral home Friday night.

U.N. Secretary Hammarskjold Defies Tribunal

Won't Reinstate Four Americans Removed In U.S. Loyalty Probe

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold says he won't rehire four American employes, ousted in connection with U. S. loyalty probes, despite a U. N. tribunal's order for their reinstatement.

Hammarskjold announced his stand late last night as the Senate internal subcommittee ordered an investigation into the tribunal's ruling that the firing of 11 American U. N. employes—including the four—was illegal. All 11 had refused to answer questions about alleged Communist ties.

In ordering the ousters reversed, the tribunal Tuesday called on the U. N. to give the four their jobs back and pay damages and back salaries to the other seven—who wanted money rather than re-employing.

The four-member tribunal, a "supreme court" created by the General Assembly to review appeals from U. N. staff members, had ruled those not reinstated should be paid damages and back salaries.

The secretary general said he asked the tribunal to compute money awards for the four but added he would refer all 11 cases to the General Assembly, "the organ responsible for appropriating funds necessary for implementing decisions of the tribunal."

In his statement, Hammarskjold said rehiring the four employes would be "inadvisable from the point of view which it is my duty to take into consideration." He did not elaborate this point but asserted that the Assembly statute setting up the tribunal gave him the authority to reject its rulings.

Morrow Youth Fatally Hurt in Auto Accident

Charles R. High, 18, Dies in Hospital After Automobile Overturns

An 18-year-old Cardington youth died this morning in Morrow County Hospital at Mt. Gilead, about three and one-half hours after his car turned end over end on U. S. Route 42, about a mile south of Cardington.

Charles R. High, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert High of near Cardington, died at 1:35 a.m. today of multiple cerebral hemorrhages.

A passenger in the High car, William C. Miller, also 18, of Marengo, is being treated for head bruises at the hospital. The youths were taken to the hospital in a Curl ambulance.

State patrolmen from Marion who investigated the accident said the southbound car was demolished when it went out of control on a curve, swerved off the left side, veered back across the roadway and crashed off the right side of the road. The car turned end over end along the highway, patrolmen said. The High youth was thrown from the car several feet and landed in a ditch along the right side of the road.

The accident occurred about 10:20 p.m. Wednesday.

Charles Richard High was born March 30, 1935, in Morrow County to Albert and Pauline Roush High. He worked as an attendant at the Schaff filling station near Cardington.

Survivors include, in addition to his parents, the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. Betty Showers of Ft. Wayne, Ind., Mrs. Helen Morgan of Columbus, and Albert, Donald, Kenneth, Clara and Louise High, all at home.

Funeral services will be held

Death Claims Civic Leader Henry Drake

Real Estate Dealer, Democratic Worker, To Be Buried Saturday

Henry P. Drake, Marion real estate man, civic leader and prominent Democratic party worker, died at 10 p.m. Wednesday at home at 335 N. State St. He had been ill the last several weeks.

Born in Marion, he was a son of Patrick and Johanna Molloy Drake, natives of Ireland, and attended St. Mary School and Marion Business College. He began his career when he became a member of the firm of P. Drake and Sons, pioneer contracting firm in the building of state highways, street paving, and sewer construction. Later, because of war conditions and curtailing of private contraction, he went into the real estate business. As a member of the Marion Real Estate Board since its organization, he held all offices of the board.

At the time of its inception in 1933, he was appointed sub-district manager of the Home Owners Loan Corp for Crawford, Morrow and Marion Counties, a position he held until the end of the organization's loaning period in 1936.

During World War II, he was appointed as a local member of national Selective Service, 1940, to act as chairman for Marion County

Army Training Boat Capsizes, 20 GI's Drown

Ft. Bragg Maneuver Ends in Tragedy for Engineer Recruits

FT. BRAGG, N. C. (AP)—Twenty soldiers, many of whom could not swim, drowned within sight of comrades on shore here yesterday when a training boat capsized in a reservation lake.

The post public information office said late last night it still did not know how many men were aboard. Only two of the survivors were hospitalized. Neither was in serious condition.

Some Swim Ashore

Some of the survivors were helped ashore. Others swam the 100 yards to safety despite their bulky fatigue uniforms and non-swimmers' panicky efforts to grab them.

The men were members of the 406th Engineer Brigade. Most were basic trainees. They were on an orientation ride on the mile-long lake in a boat consisting of two 14-foot-long assault craft bolted together end to end. It went down in about 10 feet of water.

May Have Been Avoided

Otto Edwards, Ft. Bragg safety director, said the normal load for such a boat is only about 25 men.

Army officials in Washington said they thought it was the worst training accident, not involving aircraft, since World War II. Edwards said it was the biggest single accident toll he had seen in 12 years as safety director at 27 Army installations.

The boat dipped water when it

Bodies of 19 Dead In Air Crash Found

MCCHORD AIR FORCE BASE, Wash. (AP)—Broken by the force of the impact and charred from the fire which followed, the bodies of 19 soldiers and two civilian fliers were taken yesterday from the wreckage of an airliner which crashed 30 miles south of here.

The victims died when the non-scheduled DC3 of the Regina Airlines rammed into a steep 3,000 foot mountain peak near Vail, Wash., late Tuesday.

Youth, 13, Has Reform School Heads Baffled

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP)—There's a 13-year-old boy in jail here whose case has officials stumped.

Leon Davis, a former inmate of the Eastern North Carolina Training School, was arrested two weeks ago after allegedly breaking in skylights of two Raleigh stores and rifling their money tills.

A jailor reported that the youth unscrewed radiator valves and threw them out the jail window, hurled eating utensils through the window, slashed his mattress into strips and sailed toilet paper over the front lawn of the courthouse.

The problem became worse, the jailor said, when the boy put soapy water on the window ledge so the painters would fall off and break their necks.

The boy has been termed "completely incorrigible." Judge W. C. Harris says he doesn't want to send the youth to prison, but officials say he can't be turned loose

Four Million Youths Set To Battle German Reds

BONN, Germany (AP)—Four million of West Germany's youth girded today to battle Communist invaders threatening to upset their nation's crucial parliamentary elections Sunday.

Police have nabbed over 7,000 sabotage-bent toughs from the Soviet East zone, but the influx continued unabated.

Attacks Kremlin Plot

A spokesman for the Bonn government announced last night that two big youth organizations have volunteered to help combat what he said was a Kremlin plot to sabotage the balloting by creating chaos. The two volunteer groups are the Federal Youth League (Bundesjugendring) and the German Sport Assn. (Deutsche Sport Und)

The government has turned up proof, the spokesman said, that the troublemakers have been ordered across the border in droves to raid voting booths, steal ballot boxes and beat up election officials. Captured agents have even confessed assassination plans, officials claimed.

Reds Infiltrate

Despite tight frontier checks, mass arrests and an emergency police alert throughout West Germany, thousands of the Red agents were believed to have evaded the police blocks.

The chief target of the Communists, from Moscow down through the ranks, is the Christian Democrat regime of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and its policy of cooperating with the West to build up

Pfc. Swinehart Coming Home

Captive Wyandot County GI Repatriated by Reds

Special to The Star

UPPER SANDUSKY — There's plenty of excitement at the Dale F. Swinehart home near Upper Sandusky today . . . and rightly so.

Twenty-one-year-old Pfc. Thomas Swinehart, captured by the Chinese Communists in North Korea almost a year ago, is coming home. His name was included in the official list of American war prisoners freed today at Panmunjom.

The Swineharts have been watching and waiting hopefully ever since word came last Oct. 31 that their young son was missing in action. They had no idea what had happened to him or where he was. They started an almost constant vigil for some word about their boy. They listened to news broadcasts and scanned newspapers carrying the freed POW lists, hoping against hope that they would see that name. But there was no word.

ALMOST A YEAR went past and Mrs. Swinehart gave up hope of ever seeing her boy again. Her husband, a Wyandot County highway department employe, never quit hoping . . . not until a few weeks ago.

Last night, the Swineharts, almost methodically, listened to the 10 o'clock news broadcast . . . no different than any other night . . . then went to bed, almost be-

Noisy Blonde Bilks Two Cashiers of $20

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A dumpy blonde with a flair for histrionics yesterday bilked two cashiers of $20.

Her act, according to police reports, went like this:

She made small purchases at four establishments, paying at each with a $10 bill and vociferously demanding change for a $20. It worked twice.

"She yelled so loud," one cashier said, "that we were trying to shortchange her, we just gave her the money to save embarrassment."

Scientist Says Great Polar Ice Caps Melting

SOLOMONS ISLAND, Md. (AP)—A scientist at the Chesapeake Biological Laboratory here says that eventually there won't be an Eastern Shore in Maryland, much of one anyway.

Dr. R. V. Truitt says the area eventually will be covered with water—several thousands years from now.

The reason, he says, is that the great polar caps are melting, causing the oceans of the world to rise one seventh of an inch per 100 years.

Tomatoes Get Ripe Too Fast, Company Destroys 100 Loads

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP)—The Campbell Soup Co. has ordered the destruction of nearly 100 truckloads of ripe tomatoes because the firm has no facilities to process them for canning.

A firm spokesman said tomatoes are ripening earlier than usual in the heat wave.

The company said farmers are being paid for their loads and that the firm is absorbing the loss.

Approximately 97 per cent of tomatoes delivered to the plant Monday, Tuesday and yesterday were ordered destroyed, the spokesman said.

The company said the plant is operating 24 hours a day, seven days a week in an effort to process as many tomatoes as possible.

Man Admits Shots Fired by Himself

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A 24-year-old man who twice reported being shot at while riding in his car admitted yesterday he fired the shots himself.

Deputy Sheriff T. A. Buchanan said Jack Carlisle pumped .22-caliber rifle bullets into his car and wrote himself a threatening letter to arouse sympathy for himself because his wife was planning to divorce him.

Buchanan said Carlisle would be examined by doctors and that criminal charges probably would not be filed.

HANGS SELF IN JAIL

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Franklin County sheriff's office said last night Wayne Siders, 29, of Columbus, hanged himself in the county jail where he was waiting trial on arson charges. Siders, a former Lima State Hospital inmate, confessed to setting three fires near his home, officers said.

ELDERLY VAGABOND. Louis Schumm, jailed as a vagrant at Fresno, Calif., when he was found sleeping under a tree, surprised police when he told them he was born in Brooklyn 109 years ago. He could give no details, however. Schumm strongly denied the vagrancy charge with the explanation he started traveling as a career when he grew too old to do steady work. "I never fool around with freight trains," he said. "And I don't know why, but nobody ever picks me up in a car. I walk most of the time."

710-Pound Man Big Problem for Movers

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—They huffed and they puffed, but it took six men two hours to tear down the trailer house of 710-pound Fred Pebley.

Using piano-moving equipment, saws, hammers, jacks and ramps, the moving company men grunted and groaned to ease the 38-year-old native Kansas man from his quarters to a specially constructed bed at the county home.

The big, jolly man said it was the first time in 12 months he had left the trailer. His legs cannot support his weight. He arrived at the home several months ago and had to live in his trailer because of his size.

Doctors said his size is the result of an overactive pituitary gland.

NO HUNTING, INDIANS SAY

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — There still are places in this country where the Indian can stem the tide of the white man. The Isleta Pueblo Indians have passed a resolution prohibiting issuance of hunting or shooting permits to non-Indians on their reservation.

Cardington Clubs To Sponsor School For Little Tots

Special to The Star

CARDINGTON—Members of two Cardington groups have set a combination nursery and kindergarten as their goal.

The two groups, the Mothers Study League and the Child Study Club, have decided to work together for the kindergarten which will be a continuation and expansion of the pre-school cooperative started last year by the Mothers Club. The school will be held at the parish house of the Methodist Church, with Mrs. Ruth Levering acting as supervisor and working with the mothers in planning the school program.

This year the school will include only those children of mothers who are members of the two clubs. It is hoped that the project will be successful and that eventually it may develop into a public kindergarten.

Anyone in the community wishing to contribute money, toys or equipment of any kind to the project, may contact any member of either club.

The clubs will sponsor a dance at the school auditorium on Saturday night, Sept. 12, with proceeds to benefit the kindergarten fund.

PROBE DEATH OF BOY, 11

BARBERTON, Ohio (AP) — Police today were investigating the death of 11-year-old Leo Killinger, whose family says he may have shot himself because he dreaded returning to school. An older sister found him mortally wounded in their house after hearing a blast from a shotgun belonging to the boy's father.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1953

Object Lesson

It's possible that party-leading Democrats may relish the sour publicity about the party rally to be held in Chicago Sept. 14 and 15, on the theory that sour publicity is better than no publicity at all.

But it's probably they wince at every new note of discord. They are being reminded of something all party leaders would like to forget about politics in the United States.

There is no such thing as party discipline. The surest way to stir up a fight is to try to impose discipline. Both party conventions were torn by strife over this issue in 1952. It is still tearing them apart internally in 1953.

But the damage is more painful for the minority than the majority, because the majority can assuage its pain with power and patronage. The minority must withstand the torture without crying out.

Democrats now are caught between pro-Stevenson and anti-Stevenson factions just as the Republicans once were caught between pro-Willkie and anti-Willkie factions, pro-Dewey and anti-Dewey factions, pro-Taft and anti-Taft factions.

There is a endless struggle for control of the party machinery. This is the essence of the party system in the United States, this struggle. Yet it is the least understood thing about party politics, which is popularly supposed to be a kind of contest between two well-disciplined teams, instead of a donnybrook between two undisciplined crowds.

The Legion Marches On

Even the stifling heat of St. Louis could not slow down the annual big parade of the American Legion, now 2,747,092 members strong. Bugles blared, the shoulders of the old old-timers and the new old-timers squared proudly and the world had another look at the 34-year-old organization of U. S. veterans — oldest, largest and strongest of all the organizations of its kind.

Chairman of the group which organized the American Legion in Paris, in March, 1919, was Bennett Champ Clark of Missouri, then a colonel. He later became a U. S. senator and now is a U. S. judge.

Alexander Woolcott, a sergeant in the medics, was there. So was Harold Ross, a private in the engineer corps. Woolcott and Ross had worked on The Stars and Stripes. After the war, Ross founded The New Yorker magazine and Woolcott became one of his richest sources of brittle prose.

It has not always been easy to decide whether or not the Legion, which reached a peak membership of 3,326,000 for a brief period after World War II, was on sound grounds of public policy in continuing to reflect the views of all its members.

But it always has been easy to decide that no organization reflects more clearly the boundless vitality and the unflagging loyalty of the American people.

County Fair Season

If the typical county fair of recent years has a tendency to fall short of perfection, it can only be pointed out in defense of this fine institution that it always did.

In truth, everything about the county fairs now is better than it used to be, except the fair-goers. They have changed for the worse. They are no longer able to muster the enchantment which used to add a glow to fair-going.

They have been to the movies. They have traveled. They have looked at TV, the triumphs of lithography and what they don't know about things super-colossal hasn't been discovered. They are, in a word that formerly was almost unknown, "sophisticated."

But the fairs go on and on like the merry-go-rounds and the ferris wheels, the improvement of the breed, the sale of souvenirs and the timeless fascination of fried food for the appreciative nose sniffing out the nearest eatery on a bustling midway.

Lay aside your sophistication and take in the fair Take in a couple. They're as integral a part of the saga of America as home-canned vegetables and blue-ribbon horses with braided tails.

Rivers of Steel

One of the most dramatic climaxes in transportation history is being reached this summer on the Great Lakes. Before the shipping season ends, the ore fleets will have brought down more than 100 million tons from the Mesabi ranges.

The greatest one-month total ever reached was amassed during the 31 days of August — nearly 15¼ million tons Mountains of ore at the blast furnaces and in storage yards at transfer points guarantee that the rivers of steel which must be kept flowing into U. S. industry will not dry up this winter.

The miracle performed each year in moving tens of millions of tons of iron ore from the upper-lakes area to the steel valleys via ship and rail for reduction into iron through combination with coal and limestone is taken for granted in America, where industrial miracles are commonplace. But it is a miracle, nevertheless—and it has never been more spectacular than it promises to be in 1953—a 100-million-ton year for the ore carriers.

Democratic Schism

By David Lawrence

Northern Faction Fails To Heed 1952 Lesson

Northern Democrats apparently have learned very little since November 1952 or they would not be asking the Southern Democrats to forget or surrender the fundamentals which have estranged them from the Democratic party.

As the meeting of the Democratic National Committee in Chicago approaches, there is much talk directed at the Southerners, telling them to "come in and bury the hatchet" or "to unite for victory" — just as if nothing had happened.

Much of the talk emanating from Northern leaders resembles the tactics of certain negotiators on the international scene. They call for "peace offensives" but, when their proposals are analyzed, it is discovered they mean peace only on their own terms.

The friction between the two wings of the Democratic party is too deep-seated to be cured by exhortation.

The first step toward harmony is to begin to understand that the Southern Democrats are conscientious in their adherence to certain principles and that, if the Northern Democrats want to make peace, they will have to exhibit a tolerance which they have not manifested in party councils for many years.

The Southern Democrats look askance, for instance, at the way the Northern faction has become the tool and instrument of "radicalism."

This term is often rejected by the Northern Democrats, who say their creed is really "liberalism."

To this the Southerners reply that any program which is based on compulsion and coercion instead of voluntarism is not true liberalism but something approximating totalitarianism.

The clash arises, of course, out of the effort of the Northern "liberals" to ram down the throats of the Southerners a compulsory FEPC — a piece of legislation that would empower a federal government commission to tell an employer whom he shall hire as employes. Nor have the Southern Democrats ever swallowed the coercive features of collective bargaining which were orginally introduced in the Wagner Labor Relations Act.

The feeling against Trumanism and the New Deal and Fair Deal philosophy of government is so ingrained that it cannot be eradicated by a continuance of the bellicose attitude exhibited by Northern Deomcrtas at the party's national convention in Chicago last year.

The argument over the so-called "loyalty" pledge need not be a barrier to party harmony. Loyalty to the ticket is taken for granted in party politics, but the young "liberals" who made an issue of it at the last convention insulted the Southerners and unless that "loyalty" resolution is wiped out of the records at the Democratic National Committee's meeting in Chicago on September 14-15, the chances of healing the breach on other issues is lessened.

Every individual feels that he has the right to vote as he pleases in a presidential election, even if he attends a party convention as a delegate.

He would not be justified, of course, in using the party machinery locally in an election to oppose the choice of the national convention of his party, but he has a right to the expression of his own views at any time.

To say to a member of the Democratic party — the party which prides itself on individual freedom and tolerance — that we must, even before knowing the platform or the identity of the candidate, pledge him self blindly as an individual to support the unknown is to violate the tradition of independence which Democrats have always cherished.

It is precisely the threat that a minority of delegates may bolt the party as individuals in a single election which makes it necessary for the majority to keep faith with party tradition in whatever it does.

To interject a program of compulsion or to propose that freedom of contract be abolished in America is to espouse a fundamental philosophy alien to the Democratic party — at least, so the Southerners feel.

When the Northern Democrats cease to toady to pressure groups which are hostile to the South and begin to perceive that reforms can be more quickly achieved by voluntary methods, the "civil rights" issue will not longer split the Democratic party.

If the Northerners really want peace, they might better start studying the basic issues that have caused the cleavage and come up with some proposals on that score rather than expect the Southern Democrats to come crawling back into the party in abject surrender.

The South today holds the balance of political power in America and its support cannot be won by assuming it is impotent or merely recalcitrant. The basic issues are still unsolved.

January Flashback

By TRUMAN TWILL

What better time could there be to think about the Sunday last January when we cleaned up the mess from the wind-blown oak than now?

We—the dogs and I—started a little before 11. The ground was covered with feathery snow, and more snow was falling. There was a strong wind out of the northwest, with a temperature a little above 20.

It was one of those bone-ache January days which no one from a dry climate can understand. But outdoorsmen who have lived all their lives in climates where a dry cold of 20 below zero is not unusual will start to whimper in a 20-above cold where it's wet.

The top that had blown out of the oak had left a litter of small branches encased in snow and stuck in the frozen ground. While the dogs sniffed for rabbits in the neighboring woods, the poor man's Paul Bunyan hacked with the ax until the makings of a fire were ready. It took two pairs of mittens — one on the hands to keep warm, one by the fire to get dry

It took two armfuls of newspapers to thaw out the wood and bring up the temperature of the wood to the flash point. The wind flattened the blaze and blew the heat away almost as fast as combustion could generate it. But by mid-afternoon, there finally was enough heat to huddle by on the leeward side for a man, on the windward side for a dog.

That's instinct for you—that a mutt who never has spent a night outside should know enough to trample out a nest in dead grass and lie down close to the ground on the heat side of a fire built in the open on a winter days snug and comfortable beneath the plume of smoke.

We stayed out there until Sunday dinner, an after-dark event in mid-winter at our house. Ax work and saw work were performed alternately, to keep from getting exhausted at either task. But the main chore of the day was keeping warm. Eyes watered and fingers thumped with the gnawing, crunching chill.

Long before the sun began to sink to the horizon far to the southwest, oak branches big enough to make a showing in a fireplace were being lugged to the fire and rolled in. And long before that, the short-haired dog, an inside job from scratch, had retreated to his favorite place by the living room register, leaving the two long-hairs to rough it outside

Wool socks, heavy shoes and galoshes at that extremity and a hunter's cap with retractable flaps at the other extremity make the cold and the wind bearable. Occasionally a sheep with five inches of fleece would wander out of the barn to see what that crazy man and those crazy dogs were doing over back of the knoll from which the oak top had blown. But it was too tough for sheep that day. They went back into the barn.

We had a look at the wood which represents that winter Sunday's outdoors project. The temperature on the west side of the house at 7 p.m. had just dropped a whisker under 90. The lawn and the pasture were scorched. The dry grass rustled underfoot. The cicadas strummed and the tree frogs fiddled.

It didn't look like much of a woodpile last winter, but it looks like enough now to melt the hinges off the gates of hell. It wouldn't take much. The hinges already are pliant with the heat upstairs.

Ready, Aim!

Civil Service, Shield and Shackle

By Jay G. Hayden

Next only to the persistent 100-degree temperature locally, Washington newspapers right now are growling most about alleged ruthless firing of veteran Civil Service employes wrought by the Eisenhower economy program.

A supposed mainstay of the Republican economy drive — Chairman Rees of the House Civil Service Committee — chimed in last weekend with the assertion that "Thousands of qualified career employes . . . after as much as 30 and 35 years of service are out looking for jobs, while thousands of temporary employes, who have never passed a Civil Service examination, hold government positions."

All this is in spite of the almost complete failure so far of the big cut-down in government bureaucracy, promised when the new administration took over.

No doubt all members of the new Eisenhower team are doing their best to reduce, but between newly arising responsibilities and the obstacles imposed by complex Civil service rules the government payroll remains substantially where President Truman left it.

Specifically, the fiscal year ended July 1 with 2,486,590 civilian workers in the federal government, compared with 2,556,482 in January, Truman's last month in office.

Chairman Philip Young of the Civil Service Commission since then has claimed a reduction of 80,000, due to Eisenhower curtailments, and promised another 100,000 within the next 10 months.

Even that accomplishment, however, would be far short of initial Eisenhower hopes.

There is the further circumstance that, while federal government employment has moved steadily, although mildly, downward in recent months, the number of state and local government employes has continued to rise.

As of last April there were some 4,310,000 persons on state and local government payrolls — almost double the federal roster of civilian workers.

Government civilian employment in total today accounts for more than one-eighth of all nonagricultural workers. Considered as an industry, government, with some 6,600,000 employes, is outnumbered only by manufacturing, with about 17,000,000, and wholesale and retail trade, with some 10,300,000.

According to a recently released report by the Civil Service Commission, three-fourths of the civilian employes of the federal government earn between $2,000 and $4,000 a year. The over-all average annual wage is only $3,775.

Despite the fact that the curtailment of the government machine so far has been infinitesimal, there is no gainsaying the disturbance of mind it is causing among not only persons displaced but those still on the job.

This is because "reduction" is in the air and everybody is afraid it will hit him or her next. And the torture is being dragged out because most times when an executive tried to fire, or even move, an employe he runs into a whole nest of obstacles.

Months ago President Eisenhower found that he was not making much progress in the matter of changing from Roosevelt-Truman policies for the reason that thousands of near-top policy-making jobs still were held by devotees of these Democratic presidefits.

Eisenhower has ordered that posts in that category be removed from Civil Service status. In accordance with this ruling Secretary McKay, for example, picked 400 jobs as vital to policy-making out of a total of 57,000 in his department.

Now it is disclosed that three-fourths of the employes thus proposed for discharge or transfer to other posts have won from the Civil Service Commission reversal of the orders for change in their status.

Theoretically employes with Civil Service rating take precedence over persons not so classified, and this is doubly so of war veterans with civil service status.

When ordered to make reductions, however, an executive may find that an old civil servicer, or even a war veteran, better can be spared than some more intelligent and vigorous new arrival because almost all hiring since beginning of the Korean War has been outside of Civil Service, so-called "temporary" employes are numerous.

Because experienced executives all know that when a senior Civil Service employe is dropped it usually means that there is deficient performance, there is a great tendency for the hiring officers of other departments to resist taking on the displaced person.

Thus Rees declared that he had learned from one department that 25 per cent of its permanent positions were unfilled, and in another agency one-third, while temporary employes were doing the work.

No doubt the Civil Service System is sound in principle. But scarcely any governmental old-timer will deny that Civil Service in practice frequently gravitates into a haven for loafers.

South Pacific Women

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON

Too long we've thought of South Pacific Island women either as pin-up girls in grass skirts and laden with flowers, swaying to haunting music, or sitting on their haunches in front of thatched houses grinding meal or nursing babies.

Today, instead, they are emerging as thinkers and doers, raising a voice along with their menfolk for the betterment of their people, says Edna Barr. She is an official in the State Department's Office of Dependent Areas Affairs. Her special responsibility concerns U.S. participation in the South Pacific Commission, set up to promote the economic and social development of the 17 dependent territories in the area.

She says special consideration is being given to the women's role. This, is in accordance with recommendations adopted at meetings of the islanders themselves in which women had a voice.

Equality in educational opportunities, the organization of women's clubs and committees, the recommendation to hold a conference of women from the islands for discussing maternal and infant welfare and other problems of special interest to women, are among projects under consideration, Miss Barr told me.

Miss Barr, 33, blue-eyed, amiable Ohio State graduate, has been in close contact with the peoples of the area since 1948, when the commission was organized. She attended commission meetings in April and October at Noumea, on the cigar-shaped island of New Caledonia, 800 miles northeast of Australia. She goes also to Noumea for conferences of the islander members in the commission headquarters, "The Pentagon," named after the five-winged Defense Department structure across the Potomac here.

Miss Barr, who is the only woman attached to the official delegations to these meetings, was impressed by the appearance of three island women delegates at last April's conference. They were much acclaimed by men delegates, and she said their recommendations were all adopted unanimously.

The women delegates included Tani, a Melanesian woman leader of Papua; Pa Ariki, a very beautiful, highly-intelligent young Polynesian from the Cook Islands, and Mme. Terorotuau Mouna, former school teacher from Tahiti.

"South Pacific women, while they do not have all the chances for education they should have, are basically very intelligent and have a way of living that is peaceful and charming," Miss Barr said.

The Once Over

Crowding the Probers

A Senate Judiciary Committee has been named to investigate the juvenile delinquency situation. It will be lucky if the kids don't cut their tires, swipe their lanterns and do a little vandalism in the committee rooms. With the Senate group looking into juvenile deliquency, it may now be said that everybody is in the act.

The senators, we fear, won't bring out anything that hasn't been brought out by dozens of investigating groups, but they will do it more loudly and against a background of the Washington monument and the Lincoln Memorial. That should help.

The juvenile baddies have most every community in the land harrassed and baffled. They are hard to take, especially in the tendency to pose laughingly for the photographers in an hour of disgrace.

Nevertheless they are the victims of grownup individuals and agencies which dish out complete crime patterns, prepackage the criminal routines and even glorify the criminals. (You had better watch out, senators, or the movies, radio and TV folks will make a thriller out of your investigation, with a possible script by Mickey Spillane)

It is the fashion to blame the parents, and they are not wholly free from responsibility in an age of coddling, but, all in all, the mothers and fathers of America are a bewildered lot, surrounded as they are by agencies exploiting low standards, subcellar morals and general cheapness.

Where can pop and mom get in teaching the moppets the importance of good behavior when so many phases of the American scene constitute a course of instruction in disorderly conduct?

What chance has popper got lecturing little Wilbert on the value of character when the routines of the hoods, the chiselers, the no-goods and the foul balls are made available to them in all avenues of entertainment and in some avenues of politics, literature, sports and business?

Where does the old man get off taking Little Willie to the woodshed for heaving a rock through the school window when he did it on is way home from a movie showing all the stirring details of a prison break?

What good can mom do sending Little Petunia to bed Tuesday night without her supper for sassing teacher when the kid can go out the other five nights and see Hollywood's most glamorous dishes in a picture about gunmolls, kept women and lady tramps?

Sales Ad Club Hears Talk by Fremont Man

Bingham-Herbrand Official Speaks at 1st Meeting of Group

The technique of selling was the theme of a talk given Wednesday noon at Hotel Harding by Colman O'Shaughnessy, sales manager of the tool division of the Bingham-Herbrand Corp. of Fremont, at a luncheon opening the 1953-54 season of the Sales Ad club of the Marion Chamber of Commerce.

Forty-eight members and guests were told: "Advertising and selling are regarded as professions by those who work in these fields—and by few else. We have to do with emotions . . . On the average, it costs 40c to make a product the consumer buys for $1 The other 60c is the cost of distribution, or selling, the cost of selling the wholesaler, selling the retailer, selling the consumer."

"Salesmen," O'Shaughnessy said, "built America's fabulous factories, not the engineers. Mass production is predicated on mass distribution. Untuly a manufacturer is pretty certain he has the sales force,, the advertising campaign and the distribution outlets, he does not start high-volume production. Plants are expanded and production runs are increased only when selling outstrips production."

He urged that everyone engaged in advertising and selling take time occasionaly to review the fundamentals, the basic essentials which are too often either forgotten or overlooked by those who have spent much time in either field.

Len Elliot, immediate past president of the club, introduced O'Shaughnessy and gave a brief review of the backgrround of experience he has gained since he was graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1932.

Preceding the talk there was a brief business session in charge of the new president, Jay H. Maish Jr. Maish announced the following committee chairmanships: Miss Hallie Houck of the Jay H. Maish Company, publicity; Charles Dunn of the Maish Company, Addenda, the club's monthly news letter; Elliot of the Howard Swink Advertising Agency, membership. John Plank of the Swink Agency, program.

New Member Welcomed

Phillip Dickerson of the Mansfield Engraving Co. in Mansfield, was welcomed as a new member.

Guests were Dean Henderson of the Standard Oil Co. in Cleveland, Walter Harvey of the Standard Oil Company division office in Marion, Mrs. Phyllis Smith, Mrs. Virginia Lynch, Miss Martha Knickel, Clyde Duncan, Peter Larkin and Dudley Wade of the Swink Agency, Arthur Martin of Station WMRN, Jerry Abelson of the Princess Shop, Harold E Bonecutter of Marion Power Shovel Co. and Bob Sullivan, Bob Byrd, Jim Gallant and Bill Macdonald of the Maish company.

A gift tool set from the Bingham-Herbrand Corp was presented to James M. McNoldy in a special event following the program

The next meeting of the club will be Wednesday noon, Oct. 7, at the hotel.

ECONOMIC ADVISER. Neil H. Jacoby was picked by President Eisenhower to be a member of the Council of Economic Advisers Jacoby is dean of the School of Business Administration at the University of California at Los Angeles. His appointment is suoject to Senate confirmation when Congress reconvenes.

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Virginia Ruth Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Mae Wilson of north of Marion and the late Wells Wilson, and James L. Mack, which took place Aug. 22 at the home of the bride's mother north of Marion. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Mack of near Marion.

The double ring ceremony was read at 9 o'clock in the morning by Dr. C. E. Hershey, pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church before an improvised altar of white gladioli and greenery combined with wedding bells. The date marked the 25th wedding anniversary of the bridegroom's parents.

For the ceremony the bride wore a street dress of beige linen. The skirt had a flared lace panel in front and lace also trimmed the bodice. She wore matching accessories and her jewelry, necklace, earrings and bracelet, was a gift from the bridegroom. Her bouquet was Talisman roses carried on a white Bible.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Richard Lower, wore a pink linen costume, black accessories and her flowers were pink roses.

Serving as best man for the bridegroom was Howard Johnson.

Receiving the guests were the bride's brother, O. D. Wilson.

Following the ceremony there was a breakfast and reception for 40 guests in the community room at the West Town Branch Bank. Decorations were in blue and gold and the bride's table held a tiered wedding cake decorated with a miniature bride and bridegroom surrounded with blue and gold roses. Assisting were the bride's sisters-in-law, Mrs. Woodrow Wilson and Mrs. Donald Wilson, Mrs. Lawrence Griffith, sister of the bride, Shirley Fett, Barbara and Carol Wilson and Janet Kay Fisher.

When the couple left on a wedding trip to Yellowstone Park and other points of interest in the West, the bride was wearing a pink linen suit with black accessories and a corsage of white flowers.

The bride was graduated from Harding High School in 1949 and is employed at the Goodrich Co. plant. Mr. Mack, a graduate of Pleasant High School in 1949 and is engaged in farming.

The bride's gift to her attendant was a gold compact and Mr. Mack gave his best man a cigaret lighter.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Holverstott of the New Bloomington-Meeker Rd. were honored with a surprise party Friday evening, Aug. 21, when 40 members of the Independent Rebekah Lodge and the New Bloomington Methodist Church gathered for a surprise event. The honored guests are moving to California in the near future. Mr. Holverstott, an erector for the Marion Power Shovel Co., is to work in San Francisco. The evening was spent socially and refreshments were served.

A birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hooper of N. State St. Saturday afternoon was in hoonr of the anniversary of their daughter, Sharon Kay Hooper. Prizes in games were won by Sharon Lee Huntsman, Nancy Workman, Janie Severns and Judy Holtzwart. Guests in addition to the prize winners were Royce Brobeck, Sandy Sprank, Janie Severns and Sandy Hammon of Marion and Jeannie Sours of Tiffin.

MRS. GEORGE A. SMITH JR.

George A. Smith Jr. Of Marion Marries Delaware Resident

Now at home in Columbus at 12 E. 17th Ave. are Mr. and Mrs. George A. Smith Jr., whose marriage took place Sunday, Aug. 16, in the First Presbyterian Church at Delaware. Mrs. Smith is the former Miss Doretha Owen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leland D. Owen of Delaware, and Mr. Smith is the son of George A. Smith of 403 S. State St., Marion, and the late Mrs. Smith.

The custom of open church was observed for the double ring ceremony read at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon by the pastor, Rev. Louis E. Campbell.

Arrangements of blue delphinium and white chrysanthemums and clusters of greenery, along with lighted blue tapers in white candle holders, decorated the altar. Marking the pews were blue and white candles with satin ribbon bows.

A half-hour program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. William Peebles, organist and Miss Eileen Flood of Parkersburg, Va., a classmate of the bride, vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory Chantilly lace over taffeta. The fitted basque bodice had a portrait neckline formed by the scallop of the lace and accented with iridescent French paillettes, and the long lace sleeves ended in points over the hands. Alternating panels of pleated nylon tulle and Chantilly lace formed the bouffant skirt which cascaded over a hoop and crinoline petticoat and extended into a chapel-length train. Her fingertip veil of imported silk English illusion fell from a matching cloche of lace outlined in pearls and paillettes. She carried a cascade of lilies of the valley and fringed with mum petals centered with a white hybrid orchid.

Miss Ann Quinn of Lakewood, college roommate of the bride, was maid of honor, Miss Nancy Talley of Delaware was bridesmaid, and Miss Jeannie Turney of Columbus, cousin of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. They wore identically-styled gowns of nylon net and taffeta in pink accented with blue. They carried tiny Victorian bouquets fashioned of blue delphinium florets and white mum petals centered with tiny sweetheart roses in pink.

Serving as best man for the bridegroom was his brother, David Smith of Marion, and ushers were Richard Garceau and John L. Ashworth, both of Marion.

Following the ceremony, a reception for 150 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents. Assisting were Miss Frances Naylor, Miss Yvonne DuBrul and Mrs. Herman Leedy.

Mrs. Smith was graduated from Willis High School, Delaware, and the College of St. Mary's of the Springs, Columbus. She had been employed as receptionist-secretary for Dr. Tennyson Williams and Dr. Douglas Smith in Delaware. Mr. Smith is a graduate of Riverside Military Academy and attended Ohio State University. He was discharged Aug. 6 after serving three years in the U. S. Coast Guard and is returning to OSU to study in the college of commerce.

$40 in Money, Cigarets Taken From Theater

Approximately $40 worth of cigarets, pennies, and postage stamps were taken from the North Drive-In Theater sometime between 1 a.m. and early this morning, it was reported to the Marion County sheriff's office.

Fred Thacker, manager of the theater, called the sheriff's office this morning at 8:30 a.m. and reported that a maintenance man had discovered the break-in when reporting for work this morning.

Entry had been gained by prying open a door on the north end of the building located north of Marion on Route 23. Taken were 61 packs of cigarets, $23 worth of pennies, and about 40 three-cent postage stamps.

The South Drive-In Theater, located south of Marion on Route 23, was broken into the night of June 24. At that time cigarets, cigars, soft drinks, ice cream, peanuts and cracker-jacks were taken.

Only recently, within the last two weeks, a 16-year-old Marion boy was fined $25 and costs in Juvenile Court for taking an in-a-car speaker from the North Drive-In Theater. The fine was suspended on condition that the youth return the speaker.

Thacker reported that the loss of speakers has become such a problem that he intends to prosecute to the full extent of the law anyone stealing speakers from either of the two theaters.

Five Drivers Arrested By Marion Patrolmen

Five arrests were made Wednesday by state highway patrolmen from the Marion post.

Persons arrested, their charge and disposition of cases follow: William Wharton, of Upper Sandusky, passing at an intersection, to appear in Municipal Court today; John A. Knotts, 23, of 179 Pearl St., speeding, cited to appear in Municipal Court Sept. 5; Richard E. Brown, 25, of 285 Latourette St., speeding, to appear Friday in Municipal Court; Wilson S. McCall, 54, of Charlotte, N. C., drunken driving, held in city jail, to appear in Municipal Court today, Manuel Kilbourne, 18, of Detroit, Mich., speeding, fined $10 and costs by Mayor Harold Koehler at Upper Sandusky.

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Horace Boutwell's aim was too sharp for his own good.

The 13-year-old fired his air rifle yesterday at a .22-caliber rifle bullet resting on a saw horse several feet away.

His dead-center shot sent the bull of the .22 cartridge whizzing back into his left shoulder. At the hospital, Horace wanted to know if anything like that ever happened to Wild Bill Hickock.

Prexy at Maryland U. To Burn First Building

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP)—You've heard of officials throwing out the first ball, launching ships or cutting ribbons to open projects?

Well, the president of the University of Maryland is going to burn the first building here next Tuesday.

Dr. H. C. Byrd will open the 20th annual short course for firemen by setting the torch to a building. The firemen will then go to work and put out the blaze.

OWU Professors To Appear on TV

DELAWARE—Two faculty members of the Department of Economics and Business Administration at Ohio Wesleyan University will be featured on WLW television's weekly series "For Everyman" at 11:30 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 5.

Robert W. Meyer, assistant professor, and Neal A. Pritchard, instructor, will take part in a 25-minute program entitled "Don't Pass the Buck, Use It."

"For Everyman" is an adult education series of programs. Meyer and Pritchard will discuss problems in personal finance, explaining how to plan a family budget and how to get the most out of your budget dollar.

Their telecast will be carried into a four-state area through WLW's three outlets, WLW-T Cincinnati, WLW-D Dayton, and WLW-C Columbus.

Professor Meyer is a Certified Public Accountant and has been on the Ohio Wesleyan faculty since 1948. During World War II he was an officer in the amphibious branch of the U. S. Navy.

Pritchard joined the OWU faculty in 1948. He also is a naval officer and has just returned to campus after having been recalled into active service for a two-year period.

Mrs. Ellington Installed President of WCTU Unit

Installation of officers was held when the Anna Gordon Union of the WCTU met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Jean Morehouse, 375 E. Fairground St.

Taking office were Mrs Ed Ellington, president; Mrs. Ethel Stanley, vice president, Mrs. Bessie Thornberry, correpsonding secretary; Mrs. Blanche Dubbs, recording secretary; Mrs. Bessie Shearer, treasurer.

Guests were Mrs. Gace Chappel and Ms. Audrey Martin and daughter.

FIRE CHIEF DIES

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Warren Fire Chief Edwin Oldacres, 57, died in Trumbull Memorial Hospital last night, following surgery.

The University of Virginia, at Charlottesville, was founded by Thomas Jefferson.

Chief Cites Danger Of Burning Trash During Heat Wave

Fire Chief O. A. Sifritt today warned Marion residents not to burn rubbish during this hot and dry spell after a rubbish fire Wednesday spread to a vacant lot. It was one of two fires reported.

Firemen from Central Station were called to the rear of 440 Evans Rd. at 1:05 p.m. yesterday where they extinguished a fire in a vacant lot owned by the Polak Steel Co. Persons had been burning rubbish in a can, Chief Sifritt said, and the wind took some of the rubbish over into the vacant lot, starting the fire. No loss was reported.

Chief Sifritt warned people not to burn during the dry weather because of the danger of the fire spreading. "People just won't stay and watch the fires," he said.

An estimated $25 damage was reported today in a fire at a rooming house at 688 Hocking St. Firemen reported Benjamin Wingot, a roomer there, was smoking in bed and evidently set the mattress on fire. Firemen from W. Center St. Station were summoned at 2:40 a.m.

DEATHS and FUNERALS

John H. McAndrew

Word has been received here from Vancouver, Wash., of the death of John H. McAndrew, formerly of Marion. The Veterans Administration there sent a telegram to the M. H. Gunder Sons Funeral Home on W. Center St. stating the body is scheduled to arrive here with escort at midnight tonight. No Marion survivors are known. Friends may call at the funeral home after Friday noon.

Mrs. J. D. Guider

Mrs. Ella Guider, 85, a resident of Marion for a number of years, died at 1 a.m. today at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Dauterman of near Portage. Ill for several months she had been bedfast for the past five weeks.

Mrs. Guider came to Marion from Hardin County in 1926. For the past several years she had been making her home with her daughters and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Konkle of Hane Ave. and Mr. and Mrs. Dauterman. She was born in Holmes County Jan. 20, 1868. Her parents were David and Louise Harris Kiger. Her marriage to J. D. Guider of Kenton took place at Millersburg, O., Aug. 17, 1899. He died in 1919. Mrs. Guider was a member of the Fairview Methodist Church in Hardin County.

Surviving with the daughters are two sons, John D. Guider of Columbus and Aubrey C. Guider of Henry St. Eight grandchildren and 10 great greandchildren also survive.

Funeral services are incomplete. The body is at the Baublitz Funeral Home at Wayne, O. Burial will be in the Smith Cemetery in Hardin County.

Dwight McKown

MT. GILEAD—Dwight McKown, 45, of Franklin Township, Morrow County, died at 2 p.m. Wednesday at home. He came to this community a year ago from Mansfield, and had not been able to work.

Born July 10, 1908, at Mt. Vernon, he was a son of Clifford and Sarah Watkins McKown, who are his only survivors.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday at 2 p.m. in the Craven Funeral Home in Mt. Gilead. Rev. Lawrence Sprankle will officiate. Burial will be in North Fork Cemetery near Waterford.

Walter E. Agen

UPPER SANDUSKY — Walter E. Agen, 70-year-old former Wyandot County resident, died at River Side Hospital, Toledo, Tuesday, at 11 a.m.

A son of Thomas and Mary Fahey Agen, he was born Jan. 26, 1883, in Wyandot County.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Avery Snyder and Mrs. Frank Seifert, of Upper Sandusky.

Funeral services were held this morning in Toledo.

William G. Hagley

CAREY — William G. Hagley, 85, former Carey railroad man, died at 4 a.m. today in the home of a daughter, Mrs. Richard Ruoff, at Grove City. Ill two years, he had been at his daughter's home that length of time, and his death resulted from cerebral hemorrhage.

Born April 24, 1868, in Franklin County, he was a son of Jacob and Margaret Weber Hagley. Sept. 24, 1894, he married Mary Karn who died Aug 27, 1942. A resident of Carey 53 years, he was an employe of the B & O Railroad 39 years. He was a member of Christ Lutheran Church at Carey.

Surviving with the daughter in whose home he died are other children, Clarence Hagley, Mrs. Anna Trapp, Elmer Hagley, Mrs. John Nye, and Carl Hagley, all of Carey, and Mrs. Johnnie Mann of Clyde, O., 10 grandchildren, 12 great grandchildren, and brothers and sisters, Charles and Louie Hagley, Mrs. Joe Schossler, and Mrs. Edward Bausch, all of Grove City.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday at 10 a.m. in Grove City, then graveside rites will be conducted at 2:30 p.m. at Spring Grove Cemetery, Carey, where friends may view the body. Rev. John Root will officiate.

Miss Lida C. Bott

UPPER SANDUSKY — Miss Lida C. Bott, 93, died at Evangelical and Reformed Home for the Aged here Tuesday at 10 p.m.

She had been ill for five years, and in critical condition for one day. She had been a resident of the home since 1948.

Miss Bott was born in Winchester, Ind., Oct. 23, 1859.

There are no living survivors.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday at 2 p.m. from David's Evangelical and Reformed Church, in Canal Winchester. The Rev. Warren G. Smith will officiate. Interment will be made in Union Grove Cemetery. Lucas Funeral Directors, in this city, are in charge of the arrangements.

Mrs. Mary Jolley

Mrs. Mary Jolley, 89, of 379 Thompson St., died at 3.45 p.m. Wednesday at home of a heart attack. She had been ill six months. Her death followed in less than a week that of a brother, John Caldwell of the Thompson St. address.

Born Aug. 21, 1864, in Gallia County, she was a daughter of Jacob and Mahala Vance Caldwell. In 1941, she came to Marion from Columbus where she was a member of the Community Church.

Surviving are brothers, J. Ned Caldwell of Bidwell, O., and William of Forest, a granddaughter, and two great grandchildren.

The body was removed to the Merle H. Hughes Mortuary on Mt. Vernon Ave. Funeral arrangements are pending arrival of the granddaughter from out of the state.

Timothy P. O'Connor

BUCYRUS—Timothy P. O'Connor, 81, of Bucyrus died Wednesday midnight at home. He was ill six years.

Born July 13, 1872, in Nevada, he was a son of Philip and Margaret McAuliff O'Connor. Nov. 28, 1911, he married Hilda Hipp who died in February, 1950. He was a retired New York Central Railroad engineer, and was a member of B. of L.E., and of Holy Trinity Catholic Church and of the Elks Lodge.

Surviving are a brother, Philip of Lima, and a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson of Marion.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday at 10:30 a.m. in Holy Trinity Church. Rev. A. A. Kuhlman will officiate. Burial will be in Holy Trinity Cemetery. Friends may call at the Wise Funeral Home Friday night.

Mrs. Lewis Hack

CARDINGTON — Mrs. Mary E. Hack, 69, wife of Lewis Hack of Cardington, died at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday in Jane M. Case Hospital at Delaware where she was admitted Tuesday. She had undergone an operation there about two weeks ago, then later was released.

Born Feb 20, 1884, in Meigs County, she was a daughter of David R. and Hattie M Von-Schriltz Meisner. Her marriage was Aug. 23, 1905, in Pomeroy. She came to Cardington in 1909 from Meigs County, and was a member of the Church of Christ and a charter member of the Cardington Daughters of Veterans.

Surviving with her husband are children, Martin and Marvin Hack, both of Cardington, and LeRoy Hack of Marengo, 12 grandchildren, and two great grandchildren. A son preceded her in death.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday at 2 p.m. in the Curl Funeral Home. Rev. Robert Oler will officiate. Burial will be in Glendale Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home tonight.

Mrs. Lester Wood

RICHWOOD — Mrs. Maxine Wood, 22, of Richwood died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Jerew of west of Richwood, at 7 p.m. Wednesday. She had been ill two weeks and was stricken by a heart ailment very suddenly.

She was born Feb. 21, 1931, in Richwood to William and Della Douglas Jerew. Her marriage to Lester Wood was on Feb. 11, 1951 at the Prospect St. Paul Lutheran Church of which she was a member.

Surviving in addition to the parents and husband are five brothers, Marion of Richwood, Kenneth of Marion, William Jr. of Brush Ridge, Jerald of Green Camp and Robert at home; and a sister Patty, also at home.

Funeral services will be conducted Sunday at 2 p.m. in the Winter Funeral Chapel here with the Rev. Paul Dobberstine, pastor of St. Paul Lutheran Church, officiating. Burial will be in Claiborne Cemetery.

Attorneys Hear New Insurance Plan Explained

The first of a series of noonday lunches and meetings was held by the Marion County Bar Association at Hotel Harding Wednesday.

At the meeting two members of the Ohio Bar Association discussed and explained the newly inaugurated real estate title insurance plan for the state of Ohio. The speakers were Mac Lee Henney and William Knepper, both of Columbus.

The meeting was arranged by a committee of six members of the local bar organization. They were Theodore Frericks, E. L. Mitchell, Bernard Moloney, Theodore Parsell, George Piacentino, and Charlton Myers.

The next meeting will be held Sept. 16. At that time, Kenneth Robinson, representative to the Ohio General Assembly and a member of the Marion county Bar Association, will discuss the legal implications which will result from the newly revised general code of Ohio. He was chairman of the committee which was in charge of the revision.

Thirty-three members were present for Wednesday's meeting.

The meetings have been arranged so the members may gather to hear and discuss various phases of legal problems and situations which might arise through new laws and court interpretations of laws.

After the meeting on Sept. 16, members will try to hold monthly gatherings, according to Charlton Myers, one of the members of the committee arranging Wednesday's session.

He said the program was still in the planning stage and indicated changes from the present schedule could be expected. Previously, the only regular meeting of the association was an annual gathering. Special meetings were held when the occasion arose.

Might Be Interested In Senate, Herbert Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thomas J. Herbert, former Ohio governor now head of the Federal Subversive Activities Control Board, said yesterday he "might be interested in running for the Senate."

He said, too, he hadn't "shut any doors" as far as running for governor is concerned.

Ohioans will elect a senator next year to fill the vacancy created by the death of Robert A. Taft.

Turner Leads Fight in Legion On Air Cutback

Ex-Ace Irked After Committee Softens His Critical Report

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A floor fight over the Eisenhower administration's five billion dollar Air Force budget cut shaped up today as American Legionnaires headed for the windup of their national convention.

Col. Roscoe Turner, chairman of the legion's Aeronautics Committee, served notice he plans a finish fight on the issue when he charged last night his committee's report criticizing the cuts had been "emasculated and bottled up" by the Security Committee of the legion

Blasts Committee

Turner said in a statement he wanted to see whether the delegates should decide legion policies, or whether they should be settled by "the pronouncements of a few legionnaires, past legion officers and present public office olders"

He declined to identify the men he meant by that.

The Security Committee yesterday cut out all reference to a 143 wing Air Force recommended by Turner's committee. Instead it called for "the best possible Air Force."

Turner's committee had passed a resolution calling for reestablishment of a 143-wing force. It was cut back to 120 by the budget reduction.

List of Speakers

Legionnaires hear a six-month progress report on the Defense Department from Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson today.

Walter Reuther, president of the CIO, was also scheduled to speak, marking the first time a CIO president has appeared before a national legion convention.

Also on tap was the election of national officers. The campaign headquarters of Arthur J. Connell, Middletown, Conn., claimed yesterday he is assured of election as the next national commander.

Lawrence J. Fenlon of Chicago, who has been generally mentioned with Connell as a leading candidate for the post, has declined to predict the outcome of the election.

Dulles Warns Reds

The legionnaires heard Secretary of State John Foster Dulles warn Red China yesterday that it might provoke a war between itself and the West by aggression against Korea or Indochina.

Just before this warning note was sounded, the legion itself demanded full-scale action, including use of atomic and hydrogen bombs, to drive the Communists out of Korea if the peace negotiations there fail.

"There is the risk," Dulles said, "that, as in Korea, Red China might send its own army into Indochina. The Chinese should realize that such a second aggression could not occur without grave consequences which might not be confined to Indochina.

'I say this soberly in the interest of peace and in the hope of preventing another aggressor miscalculation."

Another Warning

Dulles sounded another warning note when he said the Communists could not count on "privileged sanctuary" in Manchuria if they renewed aggression against South Korea and when he said this country would not sit "indefinitely" at a peace conference with the Reds.

"We are always ready to negotiate in good faith but we expect the good faith to be mutual," he said.

Dulles upheld the United Nations as the "town meeting of the world," which he said is the realization of an early American concept and a vital factor in keeping world peace.

An hour later, the couple was awakened by their daughter, Mrs. Betty Carr, whose husband is also serving in Korea. She told them that a friend had phoned to tell of the good news . ..their boy's name had been announced on a news broadcast. He had been released from a Korean prison camp.

MRS. SWINEHART could only exclaim, "No!" and "then" she said, I started bawling."

This morning, the Swineharts received an official telegram informing them of their son's release, and adding that he will be sent home by service transportation "as quickly as possible."

It went on to tell how Pfc. Swinehart was captured last October as he and a South Korean soldier stood on guard duty near Heartbreak Ridge at a "listening" post, about 150 yards in front of the front lines. A relief soldier found only a soldier's helmet when he arrived at the post, and no sign of the two men.

PFC. SWINEHART, 1949 graduate of Upper Sandusky. High School, entered the service on Feb. 29, 1952, and took his basic infantry training at Camp Breckenridge, Ky. He was shipped over to Korea on Aug. 13, 1952, and served as a member of Co. K., 224 Infantry Regiment, 40th Division

Pfc. Swinehart has one brother, Eugene, 20, living at his parents' home, in addition to his sister, Betty, whose husband Sgt. Carr is now serving with the infantry in Korea.

Other Ohio war prisoners freed by the Communists today at Panmunjom included:

Sgt. 1.C Everett M Phillips, brother, Marvin Leroy Phillips, general deliver, Baltimore.

M Sgt Edwin L. Humphrey, mother, Edna Mae Thomas, 3538 Wersobl, Toledo

Sgt. 1.C. Lester Bell, mother, Mrs. Daisy Borner, 231 Bacon St. Rossford.

M. Sgt William G. Myers father, Elwood L. Myers, 1706 1st St., Dayton.

Sgt. 1 C. Donald B. Cunningham, wife, Mrs. Naomi R. Cunningham, Liverpool.

Sgt James L Stengel, parents, Mr. and Mrs Melvin L. Stengel, Box 153, Anna, Ohio

Pfc. Edward N. Soltis, wife, Mrs Janet Soltis, 11804 Putnam Ave, Cleveland.

M. SGT. Kenneth G Baldwin, father, Clifford Baldwin, 1608 Main St., Cincinnati.

Elevator Burns

SANDUSKY, Ohio (AP)—The Fangborn Milling Co grain elevator 12 miles southwest of here containing 15,000 bushels of wheat, oats and corn, went up in flames today.

C. B Dillon of Bellevue, president and general manager of the company, estimated the loss at $100,000 and said spontaneous combustion apparently was the cause.

Postal Clerk Faces Charge Over 7 Cents

DENVER (AP)—Hubert Leo Hutt, 31, postal clerk at Fort Collins, Colo., was released under $500 bond yesterday pending his arraignment on a federal charge of misappropriating 7 cents in postal funds.

Charles S Vigil, U.S district attorney, said the suspended clerk is accused of collecting 65 cents for mailing fees on a parcel post, then placing only 58 cents in stamps on the package.

military defenses against possible Communist aggression.

Vigorous political campaigning by 4,040 candidates for 484 seats in the lower house of Parliament was carried on without disorders yesterday.

In the Bavarian border town of Coburg, however, West German police had to use clubs to protect arrested Soviet zone terrorists from an anti-Red crowd. The jeering throng hurled rotten tomatoes and cucumbers at 400 Communist agents being marched through the streets to an interrogation center. One Red who spat at the spectators was almost lynched, officials said, and several fist fights broke out before the club-swinging police moved in.

The number of agents that may have slipped across the 600-mile frontier in unguarded areas could not be determined. But it was known that thousands had boldly tried to ride into West Germany by train, using forged travel permits. About 1,000 were arrested on a single train at the border city of Helmstedt last night, 400 more on a train out of Berlin and 656 on a train in Bebra.

West Germany's two leading political opponents—Adenauer and his Socialist rival Erich Hollenhauer—centered their campaigning today in Bonn and the densely populated key Ruhr industrial area.

Bucyrus Pension Board Gets Two Appointments

BUCYRUS — Reappointment of Councilman L. B. Thompson and the appointment of Councilman D. D. Bibler, a physician, to the municipal fireman's pension board was announced here today by Council President Robert E. Caldwell. Dr. Bibler succeeds Dr James E Frey, who is not seeking re-election this year to council

Council also has authorized Solicitor Robert L. Brown to prepare legislation for cash contributions of the city to two funds. A $300 appropriation has been set up for aid to the Bucyrus Sesquicentennial Committee for street decorations for this city's observance from Oct. 11-17. A $350 grant will be made to the Soldiers' and Sailors' Memorial Society for a sidewalk and foundation for the memorial, which the society will erect in old Union Cemetery, honoring unmarked graves of war veterans buried there. The memorial will cost $2,400.

Kenton Killers Get 1-20 Years In Penitentiary

Special to The Star

KENTON—Judge Arthur D. Tudor today gave minimum prison sentences to two men convicted of first degree manslaughter in the killing of Richatd Burchiel, 24, of Kenton, on June 9.

Lawrence Sawyer, 31, and his nephpew, James Tatum, 25, both of Ft. Wayne, Ind., were given indeterminate sentences of 1 to 20 years. Sawyer was sentenced to the Ohio State Penitentiary and Tatum will go to the Mansfield Reformatory

The two were sentenced as a result of a verdict of the petit jury returned late Saturday afternoon. Sawyer and Tatum were found guilty of first degree manslaughter The June 9 killing took place on a downtown Kenton street across from a bar. Burchiel had allegedly made threats to Sawyer and Tatum who were with Miss Rosemary Austin, 18, of Lima, in the bar a few minutes before the shooting. Sawyer, Tatum and Miss Austin were sitting in a car across the street from the bar when Burchiel came out of the bar and approached them. Both defendants testified that Burchiel carried a knife and acted as though he would throw it at them. Both men fired a shot out the car window at Burchiel, who died a few minutes later of a wound in the neck.

to a high of 85 on Tuesday. Sharp drops also were reported in parts of North Dakota.

But it was the same story, temperature-wise, in scores of cities in the hot belt as heat records for the date and for September toppled. Readings above 100 were not uncommon and generally they were above 95 over the entire eastern half of the country.

Elmira, N. Y. Hits 107

One of the nation's hottest spots was Elmira, N.Y., which reported a reading of 107 in the downtown district. It was 104 in Kingston, N.Y, and many cities in New York state reported readings of above 100.

Portsmouth, Ohio, sweltered for the second straight day in temperatures of 107 and it was 105 in Newark, N.J., and Salisbury, Md. Louisville baked in readings of 103. It was 102 in Cleveland, Cincinnati, Springfield, Ohio, and Harrisburg, Pa. The 101 at Hartford, Conn., was the city's highest mark. It also was 101 in St. Louis and an even 100 in Boston, Washington, Philadelphia and Albany, N.Y. The mercury shot to 99 in New York City, breaking records, and it was the same in Dayton and Akron, Ohio.

New York City Short

New York City water officials said reservoirs are only 72 per cent filled and citizens were asked to cut down waste Water consumption in the metropolis has been running 300 million gallons above the normal daily average.

Deaths from heat prostration or heart attacks aggravated by hot weather mounted to at least 111.

Illinois led the nation in heat deaths with more than 30. Sixteen died yesterday in Chicago as the mercury climbed to 101. Other heat deaths included Pennsylvania, 17; Massachusetts, 12; New York, 8; Maine and New Hampshire, 6 each; Connecticut, 5; Texas, Minnesota, Wisconsin and New Jersey, 3 each, and 2 each in Indiana, Maryland, Michigan, Missouri, Ohio, Rhode Island and Vermont.

Ohio Streams Dry Up Fast, Threaten Fish

By The Associated Press

The meanest heat wave of the summer was expected to continue to disrupt the life of Ohio's fish, fowl, beasts and humans today.

The Weather Bureau's forecast for today was for a high of 95-100 with scattered afternoon thundershowers.

The Weather Bureau offered hope, though A low pressure area on its way down from Canada is expected to bring relief by Friday

Wednesday temperatures hovering about 100 degrees, besides making everyone generally miserable, did these things in particular.

1. Slowed long-distance telephone service in Columbus where an undetermined number of operators left their switchboards and vowed not to come back until they had air conditioning or some other relief from the heat.

About the same thing happened in Circleville last night when eight operators left their posts while their supervisor was scurrying around in search of another fan. But, after supervisory personnel manned the switchboard all night, the operators returned to their jobs this morning. They wouldn't state their future plans, but an Ohio Consolidated Telephone Company official said the firm has air conditioning plans in the works.

2. Displaced some 3,000 bass from Clark County streams. Game wardens had to rescue them from fast-drying areas and dump them into a lake in George Rogers Clark State Park.

3. Made livestock and poultry restless at the Ohio State Fair. The animals fretted and demanded more and more water.

4. Dried up wells in Clinton County and elsewhere, forcing farmers to haul water for their livestock.

5. Brought on curses and moans from all over the state. It was 101 in Cleveland for the second straight day. It was 107 in Portsmouth for the second straight day. It was 100 in Columbus and 101 in Cambridge. 99 in Dayton and 102 in Springfield.

Stark Grand Jury Returns True Bills Of All Descriptions

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Charges of murder, abortion and theft of fishworms were included in indictments returned yesterday by the Stark County grand jury.

James McCary, 32, of Massillon, was indicted on a second degree murder charged in the fatal shooting of Stephen Creasy, 59, a Navarre gun dealer, Aug. 1. Indicted on a like charge was Mrs. Jacqueline Palms, 34, of Hartville, accused of fatally stabbing her husband, Claude, 39.

George Sharp, 65, of Salineville in Columbiana County, was indicted on an abortion charge. Sharpe is a former doctor whose license was revoked 20 years ago on grounds of abortion.

Stark Prosecutor John Rossetti said Sharp is believed to have performed hundreds of illegal operations on girls from Stark, Summit, Tuscarawas, Columbiana and Mahoning counties.

Two Massillon youths, Leroy Burger, 18, and Jack Mannweiler, 18, were indicted on charges of stealing $62 worth of fishworms.

the third straight day they have failed to meet the 400 per day rate they themselves set when the POW exchange began Aug. 5 Friday's group will include 95 Americans, 5 British, and 200 South Koreans.

Jailed Officers Freed

Among Americans freed Thursday was Lt. Col. Aldrich Zacherle of Tacoma, Wash., and Des Moines, Iowa, the highest ranking officer sentenced to Red prisons just before the armistice. The Communists also liberated one other American officer, a British officer and 13 enlisted men sentenced to jail and "no repatriation" at the same time.

Zacherle said he could give no reason for the wave of trials and jail sentences given Allied prisoners just at the time an armistice was being concluded. He speculated, however, that the Reds wanted to have some POWs in jail as a lever to win the return of certain Chinese and North Korean prisoners if necessary.

2nd Crash Near Scene

Some three hours after the crash which caused the death of the Cardington boy, and about just four-tenths of a mile from the first accident scene on Route 42, two more persons were injured when their car crashed off the road on a curve.

Injured were: William F Miton, 62, of Remington Gap, Va., driver of the car, bruised arm and shock, and Iline Johnson, 15, of Cleveland, a passenger in the Miton car, back injury. Both were taken to Jane Case Hospital in Delaware by a passing motorist.

The mishap occurred at 1.15 a.m. today when Miton lost control of the car on a curve, crashed off the left side of the highway and overturned in a ditch. The car was demolished, patrolmen said.

In a one-car accident at 3 a.m. Wednesday on a Green Camp street, Warren Sult, 32, of near Marion, lost control of his car just west of the Green Camp corporation limits, went off the left side of the road and rammed into a bridge. Sult suffered a fractured nose, chest injury and shock and was taken to Marion City Hospital by a passing motorist. His car had considerable damage and was towed away by a wrecker.

Marion Auto Accidents

Four no-injury accidents were reported in the city Wednesday. In one, both cars involved had to be towed from the scene of the wreck.

At 6:49 p.m., two cars collided at the corner of Wilson and Franconia Ave. causing serious damage to both cars. They were driven by Donald R. Shover, 19, of near Marion, who was going south on Franconia Ave., and Willard Blanton, of 362 Quarry St., who was driving west on Wilson Ave.

The impact forced Shover's car into a light pole on Franconia Ave. and Blanton's car into some shrubs on the southwest corner of the intersection. Both cars had to be towed away.

Shover's car was damaged on the front end, while the right side of Blanton's car was smashed badly.

At 11 55 Wenesday morning, a truck which was double parked at 809 Bellefontaine Ave was struck by a car backing out of a parking space in front

The truck was driven by William M. Castor, 64, of Kenton, and owned by the Kenton Bottling Works It was not damaged Driver of the car was Strother Utley of 295 Clinton St. His car was damaged in the left rear fender and body.

The front fender of two cars were damaged in an accident involving a Safety Taxi Cab and an automobile Wednesday evening at 7:24 in front of 175 W. Center St.

The taxi was driven by Colby L. Hill of 143 Plymouth St. The right front fender of his cab was doubled in by the impact. The left front fender of a car driven by Mrs. Mabel V. Brown of Huntington, Ind was smashed Both cars were going east on W. Center St.

In the othe accident reported by police, the left front door of a parked car was damaged as a woman backed out of her driveway and hit it Wednesday afternoon.

The car, parked in front of 434 S. State St., was owned by Henry G. Johnson of 1126 E. Center St.

It was damage when Mrs. Evelyn A. Beck of 428 S. State St. backed out of the driveway of her home and into the street. No damage was reported to Mrs. Beck's car.

Judge Orders Soldier Freed From Custody

WASHINGTON (AP) — District Judge Alexander Holtzoff today ruled former Airman Robert W. Toth was illegally removed to Korea to face a military court on a murder charge. Holtzoff ordered Toth, 22, of Pittsburgh, released from Air Force custody.

The judge, however, stayed his order releasing Toth, to permit the Ar Force to carry the case to the court of appeals.

He refused to remand Toth to Air Force custody and instead fixed a bond of $1,000 for his release to return to his Pittsburgh home. Toth was ordered to remain in custody of the U. S. marshal until bond is posted.

William A. Kehoe Jr., one of Toth's attorneys, said he hoped to post bond soon.

The 22-year-old steel worker, who had been honorably discharged, was arrested in his home town last May by military police and was flown to Korea. There he was to be tried by a U. S. court martial on charges of murder and conspiracy to commit murder in the killing of a South Korean civilian who was caught in a restricted area.

Holtzoff ruled June 25 that Toth had been illegally arrested and ordered him returned to the United States. The U. S. Court of Appeals denied an appeal by the Air Force.

that indemnities and salary payments to the other seven would amount to about $135,000.

The new Senate subcommittee probe was announced in Washington by Robert Morris, chief counsel of the investigating group, after some members of Congress expressed strong objections to the tribunal ruling

Morris said the inquiry, ordered by Sen. Jenner (R-Ind), subcommittee chairman, would be held in New York and probably would begin the week of Sept. 21.

In addition to inquiring into the reasons for the tribunal's decision, he added, the group will reinvestigate the alleged Communist backgrounds of a number of Americans formerly employed at the U N.

The four whom the tribunal ordered reinstated are:

Four Involved

Ruth Crawford, a former information officer for the International Children's Emergency Fund who had admitted to a year's membership in the Communist party but refused to say who had invited her to join.

Eda Glaser, a clerk-typist who refused to fill out a U. S. loyalty questionnaire.

Hope Eldridge, statistician.

Alexander Svenchansky, a Russian-speaking expert in the U. N. radio division.

The tribunal declared their refusal to answer questions on the grounds of possible self-incrimination did not violate U. N. staff rules.

Morris said all 11 had invoked the protection of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution, which the courts have construed to mean a person cannot be required to give testimony which might incriminate himself.

The swimmers were hampered by their loose-fitting clothing, combat boots and ammunition belts with attached canteens.

Army medical corpsmen tried for hours to revive the victims after their bodies were pulled from the water and lined up on shore.

Bucyrus Firemen Give Radio System to City

BUCYRUS—A radio transmission system, valued at $840, was presented this week to the city by members of Firemen's Local 1120 of the International Firefighters' Association. The system has been installed and now is in operation. It includes a transmitter and receiver on one of the station's pumpers and a remote control receiver and microphone at the station.

The unit was financed by donations and proceeds from a firemen's benefit dance held in June.

These Days

By George Sokolsky

The game of international broker can only be played by the most brilliant minds. At that game, Talleyrand and Bismarck were masters. Woodrow Wilson tried it before and during The Paris Peace Conference and failed. Franklin Roosevelt tried it at Teheran and Yalta and he left a legacy of disaster behind him.

SOKOLSKY

Nehru of India has placed himself in the position of being an international broker between the Eastern and the Western worlds

His main objective was to raise the stature of India as the leading power in Asia, the successor to Japan.

THE FIRST BATTLE was with Great Britain, which granted India its independence within the Commonwealth. The Indian empire had been split into two separate countries, India and Pakistan

From Nehru's standpoint, India was in a precarious position, which became increasingly more difficult as Communist China emerged as an imperialistic military power, seizing, as one of its first acts, Tibet, thus directly menacing India.

Furthermore, as Communist China's ambitions in Indochina and Thailand became more apparent, India was definitely in peril.

Therefore, Nehru, with that twist in logic for which Orentals are so famous, joined up with the menacing power, while exerting political blackmail on the only European nation that had any interest in protecting India

The form of blackmail used is the constant threat of withdrawal from the Commonwealth.

With its troubles in Egypt, in Iran, in Malaya, Great Britain cannot afford to have any member of the Commonwealth secede at this time.

THE RELATIONSHIP between Great Britain and the Union of South Africa is such that were the Commonwealth to be weakened, South Africa might also pull out Then there is little Ceylon, rich beyond our imagination in essential raw materials. It might follow India.

Therefore the British have been forced to take Nehru seriously and often to capitulate to him Having tied up this arm of his problem, Nehru manipulated himself into the role of broker for Soviet Russia and Communist China in the United Nations.

Adopting an attitude of neutrality in the Korean war, Nehru also became violently anti-Formosa, this often involving him in an anti-American attitude.

Nehru could well afford to be anti-American because he realized that our policy was to support Great Britain at any cost.

All he needed to do to get the Americans to weaken their own position was to squeeze the British, who immediately put pressure on Dean Acheson's State Department, which capitulated.

IT WAS A smart game while it lasted. It produced the pro-Russian Korean truce, which is humiliating to the United States.

But it is precisely in that that Nehru made his mistake The United States, despite its huge losses in men and wealth, does not take its foreign relations as seriously as it should. The American people do take humiliation seriously.

The Korean War is the first in which we have been defeated. As skillfully as the Washington psychologists try to cover up the defeat and its causes, so increasingly resentful do the American people become.

It is impossible for anyone, President Eisenhower or anyone else, to explain why when Generals MacArthur, Ridgway, Van Fleet, and Clark say that they could have won the Korean War, he lost it.

IT IS IMPOSSIBLE for anyone to explain why we signed a truce giving the Chinese Communists a victory, leaving them the means for the conquest of South Korea and for a major war on Japan.

Our people are not fools. They may not know all the little names on the map. They may not be able to speak half a dozen queer languages. They may not know all the refinements of psychological warfare.

But they know when they have been had. And when they discover that, they get sore They know that the trickster in this situation is India.

AND IF INDIA had sat on the political conference, it could have developed that public opinion in this country would have supported a movement for us to get out of that conference and to go it alone

Almost too late, the British realized that the antipathy in this country is not just another American twist of the British lion's tail

It is so strong and fundamental that it could have destroyed the whole structure of Anglo-American relations

And maybe Nehru now understands that treachery does not pay.

MAD BULL. This head-on shot of a mad elephant was made by an intrepid photographer accompanying game wardens in South Africa's Kruger National Park, early this month. This elephant and others broke through an enclosure of the Letaba camp reserve to feed on palm trees. The photographer remained long enough to make this dramatic shot from a distance of about 25 feet and then immediately made his departure.

Canton Couple Challenge Tax Bureau Ruling.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pat Ferruccio and his wife, Roxie, of 1230 22nd St N. W., Canton, Ohio, have challenged a claim for $60,675 in back income taxes and penalties

In an appeal to the U S. Tax Court, the Ferruccios insist they owe nothing. They say for the years in dispute 1948, 1949 and 1950—their returns were prepared by a public accountant from the best available information.

Internal revenue agents, they maintain, overstated the amount of property they own.

"The alleged income was arrived at by the commissioner," their petition continues, "arbitrarily and without substantiation."

The claim listed these figures on the Ferruccio's income.

1948 — They reported earning $13,871 57, when they should have reported $53,850 01.

1949—They reported $10,083 98, when they should have reported $26,617.91

1950—They reported $22,165 46, when they should have reported $59,553 15

The Ferruccios asked that a hearing on their case be held in Cleveland.

DOCTOR DROWNS

Texan Is Sentenced To Life Second Time

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Jake Tate was sentenced yesterday to life in prison—for the second time.

The Houston man was given a life sentence in 1935 for killing a woman but was pardoned in 1944.

Yesterday the 53-year-old Tate was sentenced to life in the May 11 fatal shooting of Mrs. Doretha Grigsby, 44, who was shot four times as she ate lunch in the paper firm where she worked.

Lancaster Man Settles Tax Claim

WASHINGTON (AP)—Albert D. Pifer of 133 Wilson Ave., Lancaster, Ohio, has settled a back income tax claim of $6,911.86 for $1,500, internal revenue records show.

The government claimed the tax on income received in 1943. The claim included penalties and interest.

Pifer was described as former president of U S. Plant Food, Inc.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

This is a record year — for murdered labor leaders.

As a rule only one or two are knocked off. This year there have already been seven. A grisly crop reaped by a cool mob, unworried by the political heat, the Department of Justice deportations of millionaire thugs, the outcries of columnists or biblical commandments.

RIESEL

Latest to be buried is tough Tommy Lewis, slain chief of New York's Bronx and Westchester Building Service Employes Union—an uplift domain which lumped janitors, aging charwomen and racetrack parimutuel gambling clerks and ushers into one tightly held barony.

And a year ago, almost to the day, we buried Johnny Acropolis, murdered leader of the teamsters union in the same area. Johnny was tough and clean and heading for the newspapers when the mob mowed him down with two bullets from behind.

IN BETWEEN these two funeral developments in the life of labor, four unionists were blasted to death in St. Louis and another was stuffed into a closed car while a hose poured monoxide from the exhaust into the front seat.

These vital statistics might have been higher if one or two hadn't decided to take a long vacation in Europe or quit altogether and live quietly in that motel area around Hollywood, Fla., which the mobs discovered when most of Miami Beach was in its pre-neon light, sand-dune era

Of course, eight or ten dynamitings and some carelessly thrown lead didn't get their victims

Here is enough violence to match the old Capone days—right down to the fact that all these murders and assaults to date are unsolved.

LATEST OF THESE killings broke on the afternoon of Friday, August 28, and within the hour I was making the rounds of the murdered man's haunts.

Tommy Lewis' friends were shocked One said that only a week ago he had told him not to be so ambitious, not to reach for more jurisdiction

Another said he had refused to go into the territory because "somebody sure was going to get killed, and look, it's Tommy"

Well, Tommy was a tough union chief. For years he didn't circulate the union constitution He had a high rate of dues—$5 a month for janitors, "supers" they called them.

He had replaced a hardy character by name of Sam (Firpo) Abrams, who has quite a record At 18, the murdered man was an elevator operator At 21, the kid had come of age in the Scalise-Capone era in the union—and was president of something called Local 32-E.

NO MAN COULD make his way up those days without the top bossman's approval The boss man was George Scalise, now living quietly somewhere in Brooklyn after serving his time.

Apparently that imprimatur didn't keep Tommy Lewis out of trouble, for in 1936 he was arrested for conspiracy. The case was dismissed. In 1938, vehicular homicide. Case dismissed. Later that year, he was pulled in for assaulting a member. Case dismissed

In 1940, Criminal assault charge—dismissed by a grand jury when the woman involved did not sign an affidavit In 1947—felonious assault. Case dismissed.

There is the time, too, when Tommy staggered into a hospital holding his stomach It had been slashed twice—in a fall down the stairs, he said So it went Tommy was real tough, and before he died he broke the nose of the man who murdered him

Now the union is in turmoil.

There are those who will say that Tommy was bucking the mobs That he had refused bribes, that he was pushing his way into new territory to clean it up.

THERE ARE UNION members who have called with bags full of "documents" to "prove" that Tommy had expelled the opposition, ran a tough union and had "tie-ins"

Now it's a police case, for Tommy is dead—as are the others, including a clean guy called Johnny Acropolis, whose death the AFL leaders have forgotten There are a hundred Johnnys and Tommys across the land.

They are either bucking or playing with the tough crowds who have bought in on the union movement by paying for a union charter with cash or with a promise to turn over insurance business—as the House Committee on Government Operations soon will disclose a result of a six-man investigation.

THESE PROFESSIONAL operators of purchased union charters have little in common with the men who launched American labor.

There is no doubt that AFL president George Meany, or national secretary Bill Schnitzler, or men such as David Dubinsky, the ebullient Jimmie Petrillo, and David Beck, whose problems are complex because he faces the toughest muscle of all, want to rout the mobs.

They are loath to pry open the lid on some of the rat's nests because they fear the public will turn on all labor It won't.

The best way to end the murders is to rip out the race track crowd, the bowling alley mob, the juke box boys—and a hundred others

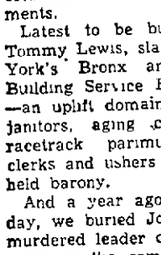
Otherwise we'll be burying more men—and decent labor with them

Kitchen Triangle

By Inez Robb

I have just met a high-type woman who says no home is complete without an eternal triangle

Since she said it should be strictly confined to the kitchen, I at first thought she was making a pitch to revive the old-fashioned ice man



INEZ ROBB

However, Miss Doris Piper of Cincinnati looked askance at this sensible suggestion and said the triangle of which she speaks is strictly limited to kitchen stove, refrigerator and dish-washing center

-:-

MISS PIPER, an expert on kitchen design says women would add 10, maybe 20, years to their respective lives and take a load off their collective feet if they would arrange a good fast triangle between stove, refrigerator and dish-washer electric or human when planning the family kitchen.

The tread mill between those three kitchen staples can be a primrose path if arranged in a tight triangle, Miss Piper said when we met recently

"With such an efficient arrangement, a woman can save some of the best years of her life for other things than kitchen routine," said this handsome young woman who wrote a college thesis on kitchen planning and kited it into a career.

SHE FIRMLY believes that a kitchen should be a kitchen and not a "work area" in one of these new-fangled "free-flowing" houses in which you can't tell where the kitchen begins and the living room ends

"The little woman needs a change of rooms," said Miss Piper firmly.

"When she gets out of the kitchen she ought to know it by something more than a chalk mark on the floor.

"Modern architecture is all very well, but I don't want just a plant divider or a combination book-case and television set between me and the rest of the house. When a woman leaves the kitchen, she ought to be able to slam the door, if that's the way she feels."

Miss Piper recently read an article on one of these new houses where the kitchen flows into the living room or vice versa. In it, she ran across a sinister statement saying "The American housewife need no longer be alone in her kitchen."

THIS KITCHEN expert is of the opinion that a lot of women are only too happy to be all alone in the kitchen with the lamb stew and a good soap opera

Lots of women, she feels don't like to cook with a crowd under foot or with audience participation from the bleachers.

"I don't want anyone reading the cookbook over my shoulder," I said firmly. "I want to be alone when making with the hamburgers"

Miss Piper feels there is a time and place for sociability in the kitchen, if the chief cook and bottle washer feels like it. Maybe a handy breakfast nook where the family won't fall into the electric mixer.

A "SOCIABLE" kitchen, including eternal triangle, should be about 14 by 16 feet in size, says this expert. A strictly "working" kitchen needs 10 by 12 feet of space. And the all-purpose kitchen with eternal triangle, freezing unit, laundry space and snack area demands 16x20 feet.

"What about the 'kitchenette?'" I whispered, scarce daring to mention this hideous city invention.

Miss Piper sniffed. Most of 'em, in her opinion, aren't even fit for a triangle. Hardly enough space, in fact, to kiss the cook.

It is estimated that when white men first came to the United States there were about eight trillion board fee of timber in the forests of the country.

TROUBLE MAKERS GET INTO TROUBLE THEMSELVES. In Frankfurt, Germany, police herd these "invaders" from East Germany into a police van after they were rounded up as suspected agitators who crossed over into West Germany to stir up trouble in the West German elections. About 3,000 of these "invaders" have been arrested within the past few days and shipped back to East Germany.

Probers Hear 4

12-Year Record of Red Activities in Ohio Aired

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Un-American Activities Commission at its first open hearing this year unfolded a 12-year record of Communist operations in the Akron area, center of the nation's rubber industry.

The trend of testimony by four witnesses here yesterday indicated they may have built the framework for another hearing, possibly in Akron, to bring the story of party operations there up to date.

Testimony here dealt with the work of four former Communists during a period between the 1936 Akron rubber strike and 1948. All said they belonged to the party at various times during that period but no longer were members.

The witnesses were Christian U. Probst, 69, Akron, and his wife, Mae; Vani Mitri, 57, Akron, and Ralph J. Kerns, 60, Cuyahoga Falls.

All appeared under subpoena but said they testified willingly at the hearing in the Statehouse. The commission conducted five closed hearings before opening one to the public.

Mitri said he was a Communist during the entire 12-year period. He said he joined in the belief that his lot would be better "when the new government" took over but became disillusioned and quit the party for a Christian way of life.

Mitri estimated Communists had between 300 and 400 dues-paying members at one time in the Akron area. The figure contrasted with testimony of another witness who said the party had "never more than 250."

That witness was Mrs. Probst. She said she and her husband joined the party in 1936 to get better working conditions. Both quit in 1948 they related.

Probst told of collecting dues for the Reds at Goodyear and at General Tire and Rubber Co.

Kerns said he joined the Reds from 1936 to 1940 under urging from his superiors at Goodyear to report to them on Communist activities. He said his role as informer never had been made public until yesterday's hearing.

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Rev. Theodore Brevard, retired superintendent of missions for the Ohio Baptist Convention, will be buried today. He died Saturday at 69.

Bucyrus Stores Favor Friday Shopping Hours

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS — Bucyrus stores will continue to remain open Friday nights, it was decided unofficially at a meeting here Tuesday night of the retail Merchants Association.

While no vote was taken on the matter, individual merchants indicated they were opposed to a change to some other week night.

The matter was brought up for discussion after merchants had received some complaints from Bucyrus High School backers that the Friday night openings cut into attendance at the school's athletic events and other activities. Individual merchants pointed out that they were wholeheartedly behind school activities, including football and basketball games, but the change from Saturday to Friday night was made to meet competition from neighboring cities.

'Comrade' No Longer Used, Reds Worried

BLED, Yugoslavia (AP)—Communist officials in Yugoslavia are worried about what's happening to the old Red salutation "comrade."

There's a growing tendency on the part of the average Yugoslav to say "mister" or even "sir" when he means "comrade."

It's getting so bad, some traffic cops are reported to have extended extra courtesies to motorists and pedestrians who addressed them as "sir." In addition, shopkeepers, nurses, professional people and others are said to be currying favor from clients and customers by addressing them "madame" or "mister."

The newspaper Borba, voice of the Yugoslav Communist party, complains this casual attitude toward established party practices weakens the struggle for the utopian classless society.

Borba prominently displayed a letter from an official of a state building enterprise who reported he was required to address one of his workers as "mister" instead of "comrade" in order to get him to serve as a secretary at a workers' conference.

But, despite this furor, Marshal Tito's attractive third wife Jovanko says call her madame.

Officially, she is listed as Mme. Jovanko Broz for formal affairs. That's the title under which she and her dictator husband issued formal invitations to a recent reception in this summer capital.

Paradoxically, Mme. Tito is perhaps better qualified than most Yugoslavs to be called "comrade." As a teen-ager, she fought with Yugoslav partisans against German troops during World War I.

The man in the street, however, with his apparent antagonism for "comrade," now seems to be in for a government-directed crackdown to tighten up party customs and discipline.

WIN SOFTBALL TOURNEY

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Barry's of Lawrenceburg, Ind., last night won the Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana regional Slowpitch Softball Championship by defeating Widmann of Newport, Ky. 9-1.

The victory qualified Barry for the national championships starting in Cincinnati tomorrow.

Area Entries Win Ribbons At State Fair

Hardin, Crawford, Morrow and Logan Countians Honored

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Barbara Brackney, a 14-year-old girl from Bellefontaine hit one jackpot with the first animal she ever entered in an Ohio State Fair.

Her Hereford steer won the grand championship in the all breeds division it was announced yesterday. And experts say the 1,025 pound steer probably will bring the top price of the fair—$4 or $5 a pound—at today's auction.

Here are some of the other events on tap today:

Gov Frank J. Lausche will escort Sen John W. Bricker and two other former governors, Thomas J. Herbert and Myers Y. Cooper through the fairgrounds to help celebrate "Governor's Day."

Some of Ohio's top harness race horses will compete for the $5,000 top prize in the Governor's Cup event.

The American Aberdeen Angus Show, in which the national champion bull will be chosen from the choice herds of 10 states, opens. So does the first national Southdown show.

The 100-degree heat cut down fair crowds. The official attendance Tuesday was 48,800, almost 10,000 less than that of the corresponding day last year. Yesterday's estimated attendance was 56,000.

In yesterday's judging a halfton Angus owned by 16-year-old Anna Lou Prince of DeGraff, won the reserve pen championship in the junior division steer competition.

David Roub, Lakeville, captured top prize in wheat in the Future Farmers of America grain show. A field of 175 competed. Walter Baughman, Kenton, won top honors in oats.

Lee Havens of Fremont won first place in 4-H egg judging. Second and third places went to Linnel Wells, Shiloh, and Gerald Kreins, Chatfield.

Other major winners in the junior fair—

Rodney Nelson, Crooksville, Morgan County, winning Hereford, Future Farmers of America female class; Ircel Knedler Jr., Leesburg, Fairfield County, reserve ribbon.

Janice Squires, Chesterville, Morrow County, 4-H Dorset sheep, ewe and ram; Rowe Harmon, Kenton, Southdown ewe title; Janet Bernard, New Vienna, Clinton County, reserve winner.

Jill Armstrong, Malta, Morgan County, Delaine Merino, ewe and ram; Pete Woodruff, Oxford, Suffolk, ewe; Larry Hoffsis, Bucyrus, Oxford, ewe

Terry Walker, Gambier, Coriedales, ram; Ann Allgire, Lexington, Corriedales, ewe.

Senior fair — Harold H. Yake & Sons, Cardington, grand champion Berkshire boar; Ridgedale Farm, Wooster, grand champion sow; Charles Calhoun, Jeromesville, grand champion Chester white sow.

KILLED NEAR NEWARK

NEWARK, Ohio (AP)—Forest Lenhart, 32, of Newark, was thrown from the cab of his truck when a tow-chain broke yesterday, and he was killed by a barrel of cement that fell off the truck.

Four Drivers Arrested By Police in Marion

Two motorists arrested on charges of speeding were fined $15 and costs Wednesday. They were Garnet Prouse, 20, of Ontario, Canada, who was arrested at 9.30 Wednesday morning on Mt. Vernon Ave.; and Harry W. Martin, 33, of 919 Henry St, given a citation for speeding on Davids St

Russell W. Roth, 40, of Upper Sandusky was arrested at 12:52 this morning and charged with crossing a yellow line on N. Main St. He posted bond to appear in court Saturday.

At 4:25 this morning, R. L. Eby of 418 Cherry St. was given a citation to appear in court today. He was charged with crossing a yellow line on N. Main St.

The Palio, a three-lap horse race around the square of Siena, Italy, has been run almost every year since the 14th century.

Troopship Carrying Ohioans Due Saturday

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Among 367 freed prisoners of war arriving in San Francisco Saturday aboard the transport Marine Adder are the following Ohioans:

Cpl. Sam Balamenti, Cleveland; Sgt. Floyd A. Barcus, Newark; Cpl John B Blevins, Leavittsburg. Pfc. Charles E. Ferguson, Toledo.

Cpl. Ralph L. Hartman, Alliance; Cpl. Howard M. Hutchinson, Columbus; Pfc. Frank D. Innantuono, Tiffin; Cpl. John Johnson Jr., Batavia.

Cpl. Emery McConaha Jr., Logan; Cpl. Christopher Panagopoulos Jr., Cleveland; Sgt. Jack R. Platt, Portsmouth; Pfc. Paul F. Risley, Columbus; Pfc. William F. Roosa, Middletown.

Chicago Man Pickets for 12 Years in Vain

CHICAGO (AP)—A picket who has trudged an estimated 40,000 miles in 12 years in front of an automobile company lost his job yesterday as Chicago's longest strike was settled.

"It was beginning to get rather monotonous," said Alexander (Scotty) Orr, who had been on picket duty since 1941 at the Petersen Chevrolet Co. The AFL Auto Mechanics Union had picketed the company since 1939.

"I walked slow," said Orr, a 69-year-old ruddy-faced Scot. "If you walk too fast the people can't read the sign. Then, I was getting old on the job too—that slowed me down some."

Orr said the union bought him a new pair of shoes every six months and supplied him with a new sign.

"Weather's hard on those signs, and I marched eight hours every day, rain, snow or shine, barring Sundays and holidays," he said.

Asked what he planned to do now that he was out of a job, he said:

"I'll get me a rocking chair and sit in it for maybe a year. Of course, I'll soak my feet now and then, just from habit. I'll miss some of the nice people that used to chat with me every day."

Don Burrows, the union's business manager, announced the strike settlement. He said the auto firm had agreed to terms which other Chicago area Chevrolet dealers had accepted. He said the settlement provides for a union shop and wage scale with commission for mechanics, helpers and apprentices.

Carl Petersen, owner of the agency, said when the union attempted to organize his shop, his mechanics and other workers refused to join. Since, however, he said with the majority of auto service men signing up his workers finally agreed to become union members.

'I Was Robbed'

BATAVIA, N. Y. (AP)—"I waz robbed," the umpire cried.

Fritz Jordan, arbiter in the class D Pony League, told police $60 and other valuables were stolen from his locker during a game here.

NAMED. Lt. Gen. John E. Dahlquist has been named chief of the Army field forces with headquarters at Ft. Monroe, Va. He has held the post on an acting basis since June 30.

In 1790, the allotment for pay and rations on Coast Guard revenue cutters was nine cents per day.

Korea Relief Fund Gets Proceeds Of Children's Carnival

Fun for the benefit of Korean relief, in the form of a "candy carnival" was the idea staged by a group of Thew Ave. children last week, with proceeds of $13.80 duely turned over to Red Cross. Eleven young benefactors from 3 to 13 put on the show, and sold the five-cent tickets.

"Midway" was the back yard of the Harold Ulsh home at 228 Thew Ave. Saturday, and the family's umbrella - type clothesline, draped with sheets, made a "big top." Circus "freaks" formed the sideshow attractions for a view of which customers paid an entrance fee of a few pennies apiece.

Doris Ulsh, 13, was general manager, and Roger Myers, oldest of the boys, was the "barker." A group of the smallest younsters, adequately padded, turned out to be the "fat midget family." A "one-eyed monster" was a giant darning needle, "siamese twins" were scissors, and the "milky way" was a row of milk bottles, and there was fortune telling, games, and refreshments

Adult neighbors and children alike patronized the performers, and a special prize that was offered went to Mrs. Vergie Case of Elm St. The admission tickets were printed by the father of two young promoters in his letter shop. Idea for the event was formulated by the young "manager" from reading about activities of children elsewhere, and her small neighbors were willing "hands" and "roustabouts."

Taking part besides Doris and Roger were the latter's brother, Dickie, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Myers, Karen and Lynn Cover, children of Mr. and Mrs. William Cover, William and Eileen O'Keefe, children of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O'Keefe, Carolyn and Charlene Brooks, children of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Brooks, and Sherry and Richard Kessler who have been visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Richardson.

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Sherman L. Jones, 74, a veteran of 45 years on the stage and in silent pictures, died here yesterday.

Portsmouth Man Fights Tax Claim

WASHINGTON (AP)— A claim by the Internal Revenue Service against Frank S. Jordan of 518 Seventh St., Portsmouth, Ohio, for $13,417.74 in back income taxes and penalties, for 1943 to 1950, inclusive, has been appealed to the U. S. Tax Court.

Except for 1943, the service claims Jordan filed no tax returns for the years involved.

In his appeal Jordan says the revenue service failed to consider his expenses as a Scioto County insurance salesman and failed to recognize his father as a dependent.

Moreover, he said, there was no attempt to evade payment.

DEATH LAID TO HEAT

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Record heat of 97 degrees yesterday was blamed for the death of a 51-year-old brewery worker.

Dead was Edward Bell of Youngstown, an employee of the Renner Brewing Co. who collapsed while at work and died about two hours later.

TEACHERS ATTEND PARLEY

Miss Irish Phelan and Miss Janet Wolfe of Newark, O., teachers at the Hempleman Dance Studio here, recently returned from Chicago where they attended the national convention of dancers. Both Miss Phelan and Miss Wolf ehave been at the Hempleman Dance Studio, 488 Girard Ave., the past three years and are now reopening for the fall and winter, giving instruction on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. They have studied 15 years and have been teaching five years.

School Opening Means Thousands of Children on Streets and Roads

Next week will see the thoroughfares crowded with children — many hundreds of them beginners whose responsibility has not been developed and but little trained. Coupled with this is an increased number of vehicles using the same streets and highways. As an extra safety measure, several new traffic lights are being installed in school areas with which all drivers should become familiar. Observing all traffic signs, speed limits and extra precautions near schools will give the children the safety they deserve.

Student and PTA Safety Patrols

Student Safety Patrols who are members of the classes they help protect are active when classes are dismissed. They are specially trained for this duty and careful drivers will observe their directions. Members of the Parent-Teachers Association have added their services at school crossings in an additional effort to insure safety of their children.

Lift Bridge Sticks, Heat Expands Steel

TROY, N.Y. (AP)—Feel sticky in this weather? So does a lift bridge here.

The span between Troy and Green Island in the Hudson River was expanded by the 100-degree temperature and wouldn't budge when operators tried to raise it for an oil barge yesterday.

The tanker still was waiting today for the 200-foot span to cool off.

Dulles' Warning to Reds Backs Truman Doctrine

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles' warning to the Chinese Communists that this country may attack them on their home soil if they renew the Korean War or invade Indochina was tough, was new in a guarded way, and was part of an evolutionary process that began in 1947 but had roots ina past more distant than that.

Without saying it in so many words, Dulles implied that if the former administration — President Truman and Secretary of State Acheson—had warned the Communists this country would fight to defend Korea, instead of letting them assume maybe it wouldn't, Korea might never have been invaded.

Dulles in his speech to the American Legion yesterday gave the Communists his warning which, nevertheless, in carefully chosen language stopped just short of flatly saying: "If you do this, we'll do that." He could hardly have gone much further than he did.

The secretary of state can't declare war any time, either beforehand or in a crisis. That's reserved to Congress, although in a crisis President Eisenhower could turn the military machine loose on China, just as Truman did in Korea, with the net result of putting the country into war without formal declaration by Congress. Truman's sudden action was the first sock the Communists got in Korea.

Whether Dulles was truly reflecting the mood of the nation or of Congress—in warning of war if China moves again—is something he will be able to gauge only later when he begins hearing te reaction of the public and the lawmakers.

Nevertheless, the very toughness of his talk was only the logical development of a series of efforts, each increasingly tough, which began on March 12, 1947, when Truman asked Congress to block communism in southern Europe by voting aid for Greece and Turkey. That was the first official word to the Communists that this country had finally abandoned the hope of getting along with them by sweet reasonableness unbacked by force.

The Truman Doctrine, it was called, and was considered by some a reversal of President Monroe's doctrine of 123 years before. Actually, it was not so much a reversal as an extension. Monroe warned European nations to keep their nose out of the Americas, North and South. In return this country said it would stay out of European affairs. To that extent, the Truman Doctrine was a departure from the Monroe Doctrine, but that trend had begun as long ago as the first World War.

But there was a sentence in the Monroe Doctrine which provided historical and philosophical justification for the United States to step into Europe any time it thought necessary for the short or long-range welfare of this country. "It is only when our rights are invaded or seriously menaced that we resent injuries or make preparations for our defense."

Truman thought this country's existence, which would of course include its rights, were seriously menaced by the encroachments of communism. And this was how he justified extending the American security frontier to Europe.

This was followed quickly by the program of economic aid for Europe, announced by Secretary of State Marshall June 5, 1947, in a speech at Harvard University. The pattern was taking shape: bit by bit this country was getting tougher with communism.

One year later, in June 1948, the Senate approved a resolution by the late Sen. Vandenberg contemplating that this country would make a military alliance, for the first time in peacetime history, with European countries.

The result. On April 4, 1949, this country signed the North Atlantic Pact—which in plain and public language said this country and its allies would come to one another's help in case of attack—and then began the program of sending arms to Europe, and the real military buildup after the Korean fighting began.

Thieves Leave Kittens, Make Off With Cash

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Everything was quiet in the second floor apartment when Mitchell Lipschutz came home shortly before midnight. Unlocking the door and stepping into the darkened room, he was startled by a strange "meow."

Snapping on the light, he saw a small animal carrier on the table. Inside were two kittens. They hadn't been there when he left some hours earlier.

Then he found a kitchen window pried open by thieves, who had escaped with clothes, cash and other items Lipschutz estimated to be worth $77 90.

Apparently the thieves also had left the kittens.

PREDICT ROTC ENROLLMENT

DELAWARE—About 650 men are expected to enroll in the Air Force ROTC program at Ohio Wesleyan University during the coming school year, Col. Paul C. Kiefer, professor of air science and tactics, announced today. They will be among more than 110,000 young men expected to enroll in the completely re-oriented AFROTC program this September in 188 colleges and universities in the U. S., Hawaii, and Puerto Rico. The Air Force's recent reversal from a build-up for fiscal year 1954 to a reduced force for the military, brought on by lowered budget and manpower authorizations, will mean a drastic slash in junior and senior class enrollment in the AFROTC program.

GARAGE OPERATOR DIES

CINCINNATI (AP)—A 45-year-old garage operator, George Abel Preston, died at Christ Hospital yesterday of a head injury received Aug. 4, when thrown from a horse yesterday.

FOUND GUILTY

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Walter Doring, chief chemist for the state department of liquor control, was found guilty of drunken driving yesterday.

Chile Trading Behind Curtain In War Supplies

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—President Carlos Ibanez last night signed a decree permitting exportation of strategic materials to Iron Curtain countries. The decree abolishes existing restrictions on such shipments.

Economy Minister Rafael Tarud explained that since fighting in Korea has ended, it is no longer necessary to maintain restrictions injurious to Chilean interests.

Copper is Chile's principal export product.

HEADS HIGHWAY COUNCIL

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Clingan Jackson, Youngstown, was named chairman of the Ohio Highway Construction Council at its organizing meeting here yesterday. W. M. Cotton, Dayton, was named secretary. Jesse Van Fossen, Croton, Licking County, is the third member of the council created by the Legislature to supervise arterial road building.

SAVED FATHER'S LIFE. Nine-year-old Annette Kuzdal can't swim, but that didn't stop her from saving her father, Peter Kuzdal, 48, from drowning in Lake St. Clair in Michigan. While her brothers, John, 15, and Peter Jr., 13, were playing too far away to hear her cries for help, Annette held up her father's head until police came to the rescue.

School at Meeker Opens Tueday; 180 Students Expected

Meeker School opens Tuesday with a half-day session from 8:30 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. Approximately 180 students are expected to enter the school.

Walker Huffman, superintendent, announced bus schedules are the same as last year and that the cafeteria would start serving lunches on Thursday.

Cost per meal will be 25 cents and they may be bought on a weekly or monthly basis, Huffman said. The cafeteria will be in charge of Mrs. W. G. Lehner and she will be assisted by Mrs. Robert Newland and Mrs. Everett Weaver.

Huffman will be in his office at the school Friday and Saturday afternoon for registration of new pupils who haven't already been contacted by school officials.

The teaching staff was announced by Huffman. Elementary teachers are Miss Hazel Layman, first and second grades; Mrs. Ruby Gompf, third and fourth grades; and Mrs. Elpha Eichhorn, fifth and sixth grades.

Huffman will teach social studies, physical education and coach. Other high school teachers are Burdette Hunter, vocational agriculture and industrial arts; Robert Doolittle, mathematics and science; Robert Litell, English, physical education, and junior high school athletics; Mrs. Donald Preuninger, history, English, commercial courses, French and girls physical education; Mrs. Lehner, home economics and science; and Mrs. William Stanbro, vocal and instrumental music both in the high school and elementary grades.

Donald James is school custodian and bus drivers are Mrs. Robert Newland, Mrs. Lowell Cates and Mrs. John Herr.

Sister's Scissors Hold Breaks Brother's Arm

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Eleven-year-old George Manes and his sister Ellen, 13, sat down for a quiet evening of television last night.

A wrestling card flashed on the screen. Ellen caught George's right arm in a scissors lock, and it broke.

Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Manes of Vernon, Tex., said they will stay around until the fracture heals.

Lamb Said in Line For Democratic Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — Edward Lamb of Toledo, Ohio, was said by an informed source today to be under serious consideration as the next treasurer of the Democratic National Committee.

Some committee members already have approached him about the matter, this source said. He added that Lamb probably would accept the job as an obligation to the party.

At Democratic national headquarters, a spokesman said Lamb is one of several persons being considered for the appointment.

Lamb is publisher of the Erie (Pa.) Dispatch and owner of a number of television and radio stations, which include WTOD in Toledo and WMAC-TV in Canton-Massillon, Ohio.

Woman, 39, Tries Hard But Fails To Take Life

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Police said last night a 39-year-old woman tried to commit suicide by:

Taking three different kinds of poison.

Slashing her wrists and ankles with razor blades.

Attempting to strangle herself with an ironing cord after leaving a suicide note.

Found unconscious at home by her husband, she was taken to a hospital in serious condition.

RELIEF CORPS MEETS

A report was given by Mrs. Laura Kraus, patriotic instructor, on the presentation of two flags to the new Harding High School when Cooper Corps No. 194, Women's Relief Corps, met Tuesday afternoon in the Grotto hall. The flags are to be used in the gym and on the stage. Mrs. Emma Zieg, president, presided for the meeting and the mystery box was won by Mrs. Sarah Crost. Refreshments were served with Mrs. Zieg and Mrs. Blanche Hartpence in charge. The next meeting will be Sept. 15 in the Grotto Hall.

Braves Supply Bums Twin Headache

Yankees Rack Up Easy 9-1 Win Over Browns

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

The Brooklyn Dodgers nursed a double-barreled headache today—the Milwaukee Braves and Allie Reynolds.

The pesky Braves, who apparently refuse to believe what they read in the papers about the Dodgers being a shoo-in for the flag, are causing the immediate difficulty. The Big Chief of the New York Yankees poses a problem the dodgers will have to deal with later this month, assuming they solve the Milwaukee trouble.

Like a lot of headaches, this one stems from what happened last night.

The Braves tripped the Dodgers 9-8 in Brooklyn, giving them a 5-5 split at Ebbets Field so far this year. No other club has come close to breaking even against the Dodgers in Brooklyn.

The loss cut Brooklyn's lead to 10 games with 22 to play, 3 more against Milwaukee.

Reynolds, regarded by many as the key to the Yankees' World Series hopes, made his third start since the end of June and pitched eight excellent innings in beating St. Louis 9-1. This was only his fourth success in a starting role this season although he's won 11 games.

Plagued by ineffectiveness and injuries in recent weeks, Reynolds appeared fully recovered on both counts. He struck out six, walked just one and gave up four hits. He was ahead of the hitters consistently and still looked strong when he called it a night after eight innings. He had pitched only 9 1-3 innings in the month prior to last night's start.

Reynolds' World Series record against the Dodgers shows four victories and one defeat in three years. He pitched in four of the 1952 series games, winning two and losing one.

Although they won, the Yankees didn't add to their 9½-game lead since second-place Chicago and third - place Cleveland also triumphed. The White Sox beat Washington 7-3, Cleveland defeated Philadelphia 6-3 and Boston whipped Detroit 5-2.

In the National League, Robin Roberts of Philadelphia failed in his efforts to win his 22nd game, bowing to the St. Louis Cardinals 10-7. Pittsburgh beat Chicago 8-1 and New York shaded Cincinnati 4-3.

Rookie Jim Pendleton paced the Milwaukee attack with four hits as the Braves came from five runs behind in beating Brooklyn. Pendleton tied the score with a two-run homer in the fifth and drove in the tie-breaking run in the seventh.

The Cardinals exploded for six runs in the seventh inning at Philadelphia, including a three - run homer by Ray Jablonski and a bases empty blast by Steve Bilcp. Stan Musial added a home run in the eighth Preston Ward hit a grand slam home run and drove in six tallies for Pittsburgh against his former Chicago teammates.

Ruben Gomez, a pitcher who bought his way out of the Yankee farm system last season, won his 13th game for the Giants in beating Cincinnati. The Puerto Rican rookie is the biggest winner on the Giants' staff.

The Athletics routed Bob Lemon with three runs in the first inning at Cleveland but Art Houtteman stopped them cold the rest of the Wally Westlake homered twice for the Indians.

The White Sox pounded four Washington pitchers for 16 hits, a real feast day after their recent diet of Yankee pitching. Nellie Fox paced the attack with three singles

Mel Parnell won his 18th game for Boston although he needed help from Ellis Kinder in the last two innings at Detroit. Dick Gernert homered with one on for Boston.

THE MATHEWS LOOK. These pictures show a closeup hitting stance and batting grip of Ed Mathews, Milwaukee Braves' 21-year-old slugger who hit three homers in a double-header against the Pittsburgh pirates to bring his season total to 43. He leads the National League in this depahtment, and is second in runs batted in with 118. Mathews, a six-foot one-inch 185 pounder, hails from Santa Barbara, Calif. A third baseman, he bats left-handed and throws right-handed.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A. J. Merrick of Worthington, driving his Maple Hill Genius won the $500 fine harness event at the Ohio State Fair last night.

Steubenville Horse Wins Feature Race At Ohio State Fair

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Crosswave, 3-year-old owned by F S. Grant of Steubenville, won the third and fourth heats to take the featured Director of Agriculture Pace at the Ohio State Fair yesterday.

The $4,000 race was considered a miniature preview of the Little Brown Jug Sept. 24 Crosswave is an eligible as is Boon Hanover, who won the first heat.

Crosswave's times were 2:06 and 2:06 2-5. Ellen Sue won the second heat.

Lady Dunn, owned by Carl H. School of Cincinnati, lowered the 23-year-old track mile record for trotters to 2:04 in a $2,500 event. The record 2:04¼ was set by O. C. Belt's High Noon Sept. 3, 1930.

Winners of a $3,000 Houghton Sulky Co. of Marion purse in the first race, a two-year olds Trot, were Lady's First, first in both heats, Rebel Al, and Jane Averill. Time for three horses were 2:09, 2:15, and 2:10.

World Series Predictions

Dodgers Could Banish Casey's 5th Title Hopes

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—There is a rising suspicion in baseball circles that the Brooklyn Dodgers have what it takes to whale the Yankees this time and deprive Prof. Casey Stengel of his heart's desire, an unprecedented fifth straight world championship.

The latest official averages make it clear that the National Leaguers possess one of the most fearsome batting arrays since the days of Murderers' Row, that their pitching has exceptional depth and that Manager Charlie Dressen has done a great job of shifting his athletes about to throw all the power at his command into the lineup.

As this is composed, no fewer than six Dodgers who figure to face the Yankees in every game of the World Series a month hence are clubbing the ball at .300 or better.

Dressen's three outfielders, Carl Furillo, Jackie Robinson and Duke Snider, were hitting .333, .329 and .318, respectively, through Monday's games. Catcher Roy Campanella continued to powder the ball at a .328 pace; third baseman Billy Cox, in better physical shape than usual, was lending a hefty .305 to the concert, and first baseman Gil Hodges was booming along at an even .300.

The squat Campanella, a bust in the last series, had driven across 124 runs, 34 of them representing his home run total. Snider had 109 RBIs and 35 homers. Hodges' figures were 113 and 29, Furillo's 91 and 21. That's rough on pitchers, and you haven't even gotten to Robinson.

As this is almost solid right-handed power, Snider being the only lefty in the group, the deep thinkers already are wondering what the Yanks are going to do for right-handed hurling in the three games scheduled at Ebbetts Field, where the short fences beckon. It begins to look as though Allie Reynolds will not be the answer, as he was a year ago. The 37-year-old Chief plainly is not the pitcher he was, and there seems little reason to believe that he might suddenly regain his old skill between now and the play-off.

The report is that during this final month the Yankees will make a studied effort to reconvert their former ace into a starter, spotting him two or three times to see if he can again build up his stamina and recondition his arm to travel a distance. Reynolds, himself, sounded only faintly optimistic about his chances

If the Chief doesn't make it then the champions will have only another veteran, Vic Raschi, and their new find, Jim McDonald, to face the explosive Brooklyns in their home park after the two southpaws, Whitey Ford and Ed Lopat, have done the honors in the first two games at the stadium. This isn't exactly a promising prospect. We hear men predicting already that the series will be an even-money, or pick 'em, proposition with the gamblers.

Their belief is strengthened by a sparkling six-inning relief job that Joe Black did the other day. If the big Negro who very nearly was the hero of last year's playoff wasn't fooling, the Yanks indeed have something new to think about.

Marion Speedway Schedules 6 Races For Saturday Night

Stock car racing on the Marion Speedway will be resumed Saturday night and will continue as long as weather permits, according to Jack Chivington of the Marion Stock Car Racing Club Association.

All gate receipts and profits from concessions will go directly to the drivers entered in the races, he said. This will mean higher purses to winning drivers and is expected to draw some 30 to 40 cars to the track each Saturday night, he added.

Any novice drivers anxious to get started in the stock car racing game are invited to enter the races, Chivington said.

Organized and promoted by the Association, the races will get under way at 8:30 p.m. each Saturday night. Program this Saturday will include six races with a 25-lap feature, according to Chivington.

Industrial Loop Playoff Tonight

Industries, Smitty's Win Annual All-Star Games

The Annual All-Star Program, pitting top Marion softball players against each other, staged two games at Garfield Park last night. Teams play under the names of the four first-round league winners

Marion Industries Five dropped the C and O Railroad in a close game which was pulled out of the fire in the final inning by a 6-5 count. In the second game, Smitty's All-Stars whipped Epworth Methodist in a 15-5 slugfest.

Trailing by a 3-2 count, the C. & O entered the top of the seventh frame to punch out three hits and three runs to take a 5-3 lead. Marion Industries came back in the final half of the seventh, to score three runs before a man was retired to take the game. Harold Dillion led off with a home run and Walters and Daum both reached the sacks on errors. Ernie Penn then drew a base on balls and Don Poorman and Sonny Taylor followed with hits to score the tieing and winning runs

Smitty's array of power hitters pounded out 12 bingles and scored an easy 15-5 decision over Epworth in the second game. The All-Stars wrapped up the game in the first inning by scoring five runs on three hits. Their six run rally in the fourth turned the game into a rout.

Tonight at Garfield Park, Marion Power Shovel and Marion Industries will tangle at 7 00 p m. in the Industrial League number 1 championship game Winner of this play-off game will get a shot at the Little World Series crown Following the league play-off game, a benefit game for family of Russ Shockey recently electrocuted accidentally will be staged Winners of Wednesday's All-Star games will sponsor and play the benefit affair.

OSU Gridders 'Up With Sun' For Scrimmage

By FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Another 12-hour day of practice was on tap today for Ohio State's football team.

With the temperature hovering over the 90 degree mark, Coach Woody Hayes called morning practice for 7 a m., and the afternoon workout at 5 30 p m. with a 7 p m. closing.

That 7 a. m "on the field" call forced the 63 Bucks to rise and shine at 5:30 a. m. for an early breakfast and the usual taping, bandaging and chalk talk

Bill Mott, six-foot four-inch, 216-pound center candidate from Proctorville, was about the only one undisturbed by the early rising hour, and even he had an objection

"The only thing I find wrong about getting up at 5:30 a. m.," Bill told his teammates, "is that I have to stay in bed an hour and a half longer than usual Down on the farm we get up at 4 a. m. to do the chores, and I wake up at 4, right on the dot Now I just roll around for the next hour and a half, waiting for the call to get up."

Ohio State is blessed with first rate material for the first team, the varsity boasting speed, weight and everything else on offense, but the reserves are thin

Hayes has said "we'll have a good team," but an injury to any key man, especially in the backfield, could be serious.

300-Lap Race Scheduled for Richwood Speedway

Feature Event Gets Top Billing for Richwood Fair Opening Day

Stock car racing will be a feature of the opening tomorrow of the Richwood Fair with the main event a 300-lap team race billed as the first of its kind ever run in Ohio.

Named the "Buckeye 300" the race will get under way at 8 p m. following time trials which start at 2 p.m. A total of 48 cars will be in the race, according to promoter R. B Dean.

The 24 drivers making up the best times in the trials will be allowed to choose teammates from among the drivers of the cars with the slower times. After the race starts there will be no less than 24 cars on the oval at all times, Dean said.

Any time during the race that a driver has trouble with his car or signals for a rest, his team car immediately noses onto the track and takes over the position.

A preliminary to the races will be an auto show on the race track in front of the grandstand at 4 p m. which will also include a "thrill" exhibition, Dean said.

Only admission charged for the races will be the price of admission to the fairgrounds. All seats in the grandstand will be free for the feature race, the time trials, and the auto show, according to Dean

Some of the top drivers who are entered in the Buckeye 300 include Joe Jones of Galion, Chet Johnson of Radnor, Dick Baughman of Belle Center, Joe Wallace of Delaware, Jim Hamilton of Richwood, Cecil Moerhman of Marion, Bob Hinamon of Marion, Bob Powers of Ashley, Bob Maggard of Ashley, and many others, Dean said. A total of some 60 cars are expected to enter in the time trials, he added.

The Richwood Speedway is on the fairgrounds located 14 miles south of Marion at the intersection of State Routes 37 and 47 The Richwood Fair runs for four days from Sept. 4 through 8.

Seixas Plays Talbert Today At Forest Hills

FOREST HILLS, N. Y (AP)—Wimbledon titleholder Vic Seixas gets his first major test in the National Tennis Championsips today when he faces a supremely confident Billy Talbert in a fourth-round match.

After breezing to another easy victory yesterday, the 34-year-old Talbert was asked if he thought he could take the top-seeded domestic favorite.,

"Why not?" Talbert replied bluntly.

"If my passing shots are working as well as in the last two matches, I should have a very good chance."

This featured match between old antagonists was the second on today's stadium program.

Here are the other round of 16 pairings:

Top bracket—Kurt Nielsen, Denmark, vs. Fred Kovaleski, Washington D. C.; Gardnar Mulloy, Coral Gables, Fla. vs. Torben Ulrich, Denmark, Lewis Hoad, Australia, vs Hamilton Richardson, Baton Rouge, La.

Lower bracket—Tony Trabert, Cincinnati, vs. Ian Ayre, Australia, Budge Patty, Los Angeles, vs. Mervyn Rose, Australia; Art Larsen, San Leandro, Calif., vs. Sven Davidson, Sweden; Ken Rosewal, Australia, vs. Tom Brown Jr, San Francisco.

Of these, only Kovaleski, a tall, dark-haired Defense Department worker, is an outsider. All other favorites prevailed in yesterday's 16-match session in 100-degree heat

The 27-year-old Kovaleski, a former public parks champion from Hamtramck, Mich., won a marathon duel with Straight Clark of Pasadena, Calif., seeded No. 6. The score of the match, finished in semidarkness, was 6-3, 9-11, 7-5, 7-5.

Kovaleski's hopes of a ranking in the top 10 undergo a strain in today's match with Nielsen, the strapping, mustachioed Dane who won the U. S. indoor championship last winter. Nielsen was forced five sets yesterday by Andy Paton of Ann Arbor, Mich., 2-6, 6-3, 6-4, 2-6, 6-4.

Talbert, unseeded for the first time in 13 years and with an eye on the Davis Cup captaincy, is playing tennis with a vengeance that shows He is anxious to impress the tennis brass.

In the second round the slim New York broker upset the highly rated Rex Hartwig of Australia and yesterday he swept past Bill Quilhan of Seattle 6-2 6-3, 6-3.

"I'm playing well but Seixas is different," Talbert said "He keeps pressure on you all the time"

Seixas, his net game not as sharp as usual, had to go four sets to beat Grant Golden of Wilmette, Ill., 6-2, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3.

While the men are going into the quarter-finals, the women get only halfway there today with matches confined to the upper bracket. Maureer Connolly of San Diego, Calif., seeking her third straight crown plays Jeanne Arth of St. Paul, Minn., while Mrs. Margaret Osborne du Pont, the comebacking ex-titlist, meets Angela Mortimer, England's Wightman Cupper.

Jansen Goes To Mound for Redlegs Today

NEW YORK (AP)—Larry Jansen will be gunning for his 11th victory of the season against 12 setbacks when he takes the mound against Cincinnati at the Polo Grounds this afternoon Opposing him will be lefty Fred Baczewski, with an 8-3 slate

Columbus Team Is Winner of District Softball Tourney

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Tod McKinney, star pitcher of the Columbus Falters Packers, gave up only four hits last night as his team charged, undefeated, through district tournament play of the Ohio Amateur Softball Assn.

The Columbus squad now goes to the regional tournament at Washington Court House, following its 2-1 victory over Toledo VFW.

The tournament committee voted McKinney the most valuable player.

McKinney pitched every inning of the five Columbus games.

Hoskins Takes Mound Today As Indians Try for 2nd Place

CLEVELAND (AP) Cleveland's Indians, only one game out of second place, send Dave Hoskins to the mound today in their series finale with the Philadelphia Athletics.

Hoskins, who as a 7-3 mark and has won three straight, meets Carl Scheib (3-6), who returned to action Tuesday after a month on the disabled list

The Tribesmen have played top notch ball since their return home and now trail the second place Chicago White Sox by only one game. They open a three-game series against the Sox tomorrow

Veterans Wally Westlake and Art Houtteman won most of the honors in the Indians' 6-3 victory over the Athletics last night.

Westlake accounted for three runs with homers in the second and fourth innings and Houtteman relieved Bob Lemon in the first inning and pitched shut out ball for the rest of the evening.

It was the first game this season Lemon failed to finish the first inning.

Toledo Sox Blast Columbus To Cling To AA Loop Lead

By The Associated Press

With only 11 more days to go until the 1953 American Association's championship is decided, Toledo's Sox clung to first place by the slim margin of one game

The Sox came from behind with five runs in the ninth inning to defeat Columbus 5-2 last night. The triumph increased Toledo's edge over runnerup Louisville to one game, Louisville and Minneapolis were idle.

In other games, third place Kansas City fell two games behind the league leaders by bowing to St. Paul 5-4, and fourth place Indianapolis stayed 3½ games behind Toledo by blanking last-place Charleston 2-0.

Mayor, Councilman 'Victims' at Festival

MARTINSBURG, W.Va. (AP) — Councilman W. H. Peery went to the pillory yesterday on a trumped-up charge of bank robbery, but he wasn't alone as a victim of Martinsburg's kangaroo court.

Mayor Carlton B. Stuckey also took his turn before public ridicule.

Neither minded it, however, since it was only part of the city's celebration of its 175th birthday.

POWs LEAVE BY PLANE

TOKYO (AP) — Twenty-four more repatriated war prisoners today left by air for the United States.

The Army said the men included these Ohioans:

Sgt. Frank McNeely, Hanging Rock.

Sgt. Kenneth R. Wright, Jackson.

Odd Facts From the Oddity Almanac

By HAL BOYLE

Do some beautiful women make you sneeze?

Maybe it's their face powder that does it. It is estimated that some seven million American women suffer from cosmetic allergy. Must be that many men victims, too. But it was worse in the old days when many a gal pow' ed with cornstarch. In a tender clinch she could never be sure whether her beau was wheezing from love or sneezing because of her kitchen beauty dust . . .

Some people insist they do their best thinking while lying flat on their backs. A department store here has come up with a special thinking bed for them. It has a canopy embellished with famous portraits and great thoughts. It also has an automatic phonograph which dins ideas and information into sleeping ears, so ambitious folk can go on learning while slumbering. The same "sleep shop" formerly featured a 'heart-shaped bed for romantic wives and husbands. Racing fans also can buy circular beds — and chase the horses around the track in their dreams ...

Are you neurotic? The odds are about 16-to-1 you aren't, so why worry? The best and simplest way to avoid nervous troubles is to inherit money. And do it early in life, while you can still get more enjoyment out of spending it than counting it . . . but if you must fret about something, fret about the motor car. It now takes a toll equal to the combined deaths from the flu, ulcers, polio, war casualties and the contagious diseases of childhood . . .

Jobs-we'd-all-like-to - have department: Stan Anderson is inspector of doughnut holes for the Doughnut Corporation of America. He measures to see they are now only a quarter inch across instead of three eighths of an inch, the old standard. The industry is also launching a new midget or "small fry" doughnut the size of a four-bit piece. Progress never halts in this restless, ever-changing field. . .

Where does your money go? The Tax Outlook magazine says a fellow earning $4,500 a year now spends 2 hours and 40 minutes out of each 8-hour working day just loen 584, a ye00 rwonaew n to earn enough to pay his taxes, only an hour and 36 minutes for his food bills. But the high cost of red tape isn't the villain. The federal government spent only $4,700 for red tape last year to tie up documents. . .

Almanac health note: Some doctors believe that victims of heart trouble and high blood pressure may shorten their lives by habitually taking bicarbonate of soda and water to relieve stomach distress . . . The safest form of exercise after 40 is going to the funerals of other people over 40 who insist on taking too much exercise . . .

What do you know about fathers? Dad is younger and taller today . . . The average age of a first-time father was 28. 1in 1890 —but 24 7 in 1949 . . The modern dad has 3 2 children as compared to 8 for the average father in 1800 . . . in terms of occupations, farmer fathers lead . . . It is estimated American families spent 250 million dollars for Mother's Day gifts, only 150 millions for Dad on his day . . . But that's the way Dad wants it.

Ever yearn to have a book dedicated to you? Well, it's no avenue to fame Dale Carnegie dedicated his famous best-seller, "How to Win Friends and Influence People," to a fellow popular author, Homer Croy . . . "The book sold over three millions copies," recalls Croy wryly, "but only four persons ever mentioned the dedication to me—and one of them wanted to borrow money." . . .

The almanac's regular long-range weather forecast. All present signs indicate that the current widespread heat wave will subside, in most parts of the nation, with the arrival of the first killing frost.

Harding Student Council Will Plan Program Thursday

The student council of Harding High School met Thursday morning in the new high school to map out plans for receiving all new students and other projects.

The council worked out plans for directing the new students to their proper rooms, student traffic regulations within the building for assemblies and other activities, discussed regulations for student-driven autos and student parking lot regulations and made plans for the first assembly at the school on Wednesday morning. School opens Tuesday with a half-day session.

Members of the student council are Rena Rech, Larry Coy, Carol Blair, John Thomas, Joe Merchant and Barbara Haycook, all sophomores; Sally Chapman, Dianne Gillis, Sally Waddell, Hank Rinnert, who is vice president, Gary Ballinger, who is treasurer and Jim Alex, juniors; and Anna Fairchild, Shirley Hoffman, Rosemary Baxter, who is secretary, Murray Leeper, Jerry Emery and Gilbert Herr, who is president, seniors.

Advisors for the council are Darl H. Gatchell, assistant Harding principal, and Mrs. Barbara Willmeth, commercial teacher at Harding.

CRUSADERS HEAR REPORTS

RICHWOOD — The Crusaders Class of the Essex Methodist Church met Saturday night in the church parlor. The president, Charles Sivey, presided for the business session. The treasurers and secretary's reports were given by Mrs. Marion Travis. Devotionals were conducted by Miss Elaine Fry. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. John McNamee, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wasserbeck and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Parish.

Haven for Fleeing Soviets

U.S. Operates Secret Refuge for Reds

SOMEWHERE IN WEST GERMANY (AP)—Here is the open door for Soviet nationals who choose freedom. It is a reception center for defectors.

The center is paid for and operated by the U.S. government. It produces detailed information about conditions in the Soviet Union. It turns disillusioned ex-soviets into free men.

The address is not revealed — for the safety of present and future defectors.

The reception center was founded 2½ years ago after the Korean War showed how little the U.S. government knew about the Soviet empire. For years, the U S. had been paying scant attention to strategic human assets — men who knew much about Red Russia because they had been born and reared there, and worn the uniforms of its armed forces until, suddenly, they fled west.

At one point the trickle of Soviet fugitives nearly dried up. The reception center set out to change the trend

It is too much to say that the trickle is now a large flow. But dozens have passed through the center. It seems the word is getting back to Soviet forces on the other side of the line.

The center occupies a series of villas scattered through gardens and woods. Its American personnel wear plain clothes and are gifted at foreign languages, human relationships, morale building.

A score of rooms provide private offices where defectors and staff experts are paired off to write detailed studies on the Soviet Union as the defectors know it.

The topics may range from the activity observable at a Siberian factory to the price of food in Tiflis and the disposition of Soviet Army formations in Poland. Precise data on developments inside the U S.S.R. are gathered with especially keen interest. What the West wants to know about Russia is: Everything!

The findings are sent to Washington, London and Paris. Exchange of information about the Soviet Union is on a reciprocal basis among the countries.

The center's responsibility is not finished when a Soviet national exhausts his fund of information. He must be helped to a new career, protected from Soviet reprisal, given a fresh start.

The center enlists other U S authorities in helping him get a visa to a country in the Americas, preferably the United States, though Canada and Brazil are also favored destinations.

Galion Kiwanis Hears Law Enforcement Talk

Special to The Star

GALION — The need of qualified men in police departments to cope with present scientific methods being used by criminals was pointed out in a talk here, Tuesday, by Paul Martin of Mansfield He is in charge of identification at the Mansfield police department, and was guest speaker at the luncheon-meeting of the Kiwanis Club at Hotel Talbott. Paul Nollen was program chairman.

Martin talked about various activities of police departments, and stressed that every good and progressive police department has a school. Fingerprints was the subject of one phase of Martin's talk. He said that there are 127 million prints on file in Washington, D. C., but that only 11 million are those of criminals. He explained that it is now possible when fingerprints are taken here to send the prints by wirephoto to Washington, and have an answer back in ten minutes as to whether or not the fingerprints are on file there.

In connection with his talk, Martin had exhibits of fingerprints, and also those of narcotics. He said that it is almost impossible to cure a dope addict, and that the only treatment is by psychiatry. Dope peddlers are rarely addicts; they only sell it for profit, he explained.

New Minister At Pentecostal Church Is Here

A new pastor in Marion, Rev. Curtis Haislip, young minister of the Pentecostal Church of Christ, has taken over his duties as preacher at the church at Christian and Fountain Sts., replacing Rev. Powell Salyers.

His appointment to head the congregation here was made at the recent conference of the denomination at Ashland, Ky., and comes from Norfolk, Va. At the age of 26, he has already held previous pastorates in that district. He and his wife, Mrs. Maryland Leggett Haislip, formerly of North Carolina, are parents of four children. Services at the church include Sunday School at 10 a.m., evening worship at 7:45 Sunday, and prayer meetings on at 7:45

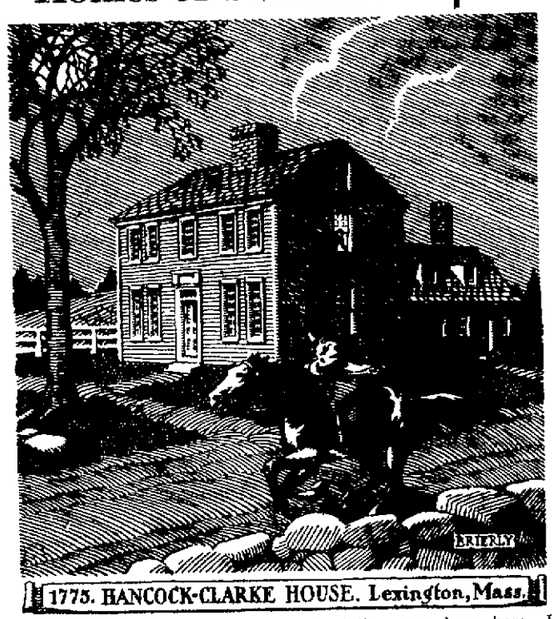
The new minister will be guest speaker Friday at 7:30 p.m. at a young people's rally at Jamestown. There will be a delegation attend from the Marion congregation

UNSCHEDULED STOP

MERIDEN, Conn. (UP) — The New Haven Railroad has discovered that time is worth $5 a minute to a Meriden alderman. Richard Kimball sued the railroad under a little-known statue which provides that it must pay $25 to anyone delayed more than five minutes by a standing train. The railroad paid without protest when Kimball said that was exactly what happened to him.

Fifty of New Hampshire's blind population of some 900 support themselves and their families.

Homes of Famous People



1775. HANCOCK-CLARKE HOUSE, Lexington, Mass.

By The Associated Press

On the 18th of April in 1775, Paul Revere rode by this old house, spreading the alarm to the country folk. Asleep in the house, until aroused by his call, were John Hancock and Samuel Adams. Later, John Hancock's signature would stand out prominently on the Declaration of Independence. The gambrel-roofed portion of the house (now the ell) was built by Hancock's grandfather, the Reverend John Hancock, in 1698, and its old hand-hewn oaken frame shows little sign of decay. The signer's father was born here. In 1734, the residence was enlarged to its present dimensions and, at the outgreak of the Revolution, was the home of the Rev. Jonas Clarke. The long, low-ceilinged kitchen, once the center of family life, today has all the utensils formerly in use. On exhibition, there are also many Colonial costumes, an old drum actually used at the Battle of Lexington, and many more articles of historic interest. The property was purchased in 1898, by the Lexington Historical Society and is now its headquarters.

They are former residents of the Likens community which during World War II was taken over by the U S. Government for the Scioto Ordnance Plant area. Their home now is on Park St in Prospect. Mr. Bird is a retired farmer

The ceremony of 50 years ago, Sept 6, 1903, was read at the home of the bride's parents Mr and Mrs. Henry M Foos, in Scott Township on the Lucas Rd Parents of the bridegroom were Mr and Mrs. James Morgan Bird Living southwest of Fredericktown when the son was born in 1880, they moved two years later to Missouri, locating about 50 miles from Saint Joseph, Mo, then they returned to Ohio in 1899 His bride was born Sept. 23, 1878, and was the former Miss Callie M Foos

Rev E D. Smith pastor of the old Likens Chapel Methodist Church, performed the ceremony Attendants of the couple were the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Thurlow Likins Mr Likins now lives at Amarillo, Tex, and is the only one surviving with the celebrants among those present at the marriage

Children of the couple are Mrs Donald McWherter of 252 Uhler Ave, Mrs. L. T. Merchant of Chattanooga, Tenn., and Mrs. Harold Smith of the Columbus - Sandusky Pk One daughter died in infancy. There are five grandchildren, Earl, Edna, and Edith McWherter and Kenneth and Diana Smith Mr. Bird has a sister living, Mrs Lewis Allenbrand of King City, Mo

Both Mr and Mrs. Bird are in good health They are members of the Methodist Church in Prospect where Mrs Bird still teaches the Freeman Sunday School Class.

2,000 Pupils Expected At Bucyrus Schools

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS — Approximately 2,000 pupils are expected to be enrolled in Bucyrus' public schools when school opens next Tuesday, School Supt. I. James Miller announced today.

Pupils will attend school 176 days with the last day of school set for next June 4 Christmas vacation will start after classes on Dec. 18 and resume on Jan. 4, while the Easter vacation will run from April 15 to 19, inclusive.

An increase of approximately 20 per cent is expected in the kindergarten enrollment due to an increased birth rate and the fact that pupils now enter kindergarten three months earlier than in former years. There will be about 180 children attending kindergarten classes.

SAM, MY BOY, MR. DUFFLE HAS PAID YOU A REAL COMPLIMENT. HE PICKED YOU TO DELIVER THESE VALUABLE PAPERS TO THE CITY SATURDAY NIGHT.
SATURDAY NIGHT?
OF COURSE, YOU'LL HAVE TO REMAIN IN THE CITY OVERNIGHT. BUT THE BANK WILL GLADLY STAND THE EXPENSE FOR SUCH AN IMPORTANT CLIENT AS DUFFLE.
WHATEVER THAT PRECIOUS PAIR IS PLANNING, I'LL BET MY SHOES THEY PULL IT SATURDAY NIGHT!
YEP... THAT TORCHY BURNS THINKS I KNOW SOMETHING.. SO HE AND HIS PARTNER ARE TRYING TO GET ME OUT OF THE WAY!

IS THE MISTA HOGAN' HE DESERTED TO THE REDS!
NOT SO! THE MISTA HOGAN TOLD ME IN ADVANCE THAT HE WOULD WITHDRAW SO OUR PRINCESS COULD LEARN TO LEAD US!
THEN IT IS AGAIN THE PRINCESS SNOWFLOWER AND THE MISTA HOGAN! --AGAIN WE SMOTE THE REDS MIGHTILY!
AND YET AGAIN THE WHITE GNOME BRINGS IN THE YEAR'S FOOD! IT ENDS WELL!
SO THIS IS WHERE YOU'VE BEEN SOLDIERING, HAPPY EASTER! AS THESE PEOPLE SAY = "AN ARMY OF 1000 IS EASY TO FIND; BUT, AH, HOW DIFFICULT TO FIND A GENERAL"!
AND AS THEY ALSO SAY, STEVIE = "THE OLDER GINGER AN' CINNAMON BECOME, THE MORE PUNGENT IS THEIR FLAVOR"!

Explorer Resumes Search for 'White Indians' in Guiana

BONN, Germany (UP)—A young German explorer is heading back to the Guianas in his second attempt to find the fabled 'white Indians' of the Tumic-Humac Mountains

Manfred Rauschert told reporters he failed twice to get through to the 'white Indians" once because his Wayana bearers went on strike, the second time because one of the three Frenchmen he was teamed with became hysterical in the South American jungle

"There are a lot of stories about these 'white Indians'," black-bearded Manfred said 'But all that is certain is that as long as anyone can remember they have driven uninvited guests from their homeland by attacking them with giant poison-tipped arrows

'Everything else—whether their skin actually is as white as that of Europeans, whether they have long beards, and whether they really have Herculean strength—all this is yet to be proved. That is why I am going back.

"On my last trip I gathered a lot of information from the people of Dutch and French Guiana Most of the stories concerned battles between outfits prospecting for gold and the 'white Indians'

"But some individuals apparently have won the 'white Indians' friendship For instance, there are stories of a Brazilian missionary who visited them Then there is a much-feared hunter, a man who studies 'black magic' and other similar matters

'I met him three times, and he told me many interesting things I hope this year to find out how much of it was truth"

Rauschert said he made two attempts to strike through to the home of the "white Indians" The first failed, he said, because his Wayana bearers refused to enter the "white Indian" territory.

"The second time," he said, "I tried it with three Frenchmen That was most unpleasant One night, deep in the jungle, one of the Frenchmen suddenly became hysterical There was a tnumult in our tiny shelter of leaves, and a terrible fist fight We almost massacred each other, because each thought the other was the attacker We returned to the base the next day

'Later, the man who had become hysterical gave a radio interview and told his French countrymen all kinds of stories about the white giants He said nothing about our fight"

In sailing ship days one recipe for blacking for standing rigging included adding six gallons of whiskey to half a barrel of tar, four pounds of litharge and four pounds of lamp black plus two pails of boiling salt water
